At Laughlins Corners

2 Crashes On Weekend Result In Injury For 14

Seven West Virginia residents were injured, one seriously, in a car-truck crash Saturday at the intersection of Routes 30 and 168 at Laughlin's Corners.

Seven area teen-age girls were hurt in another mishap Saturday night on Route 30 in the same area.

Robert Lambert, 31, of Riverdale, Marion County, was admitted to City Hospital at noon Saturday and is in "critical" condition today. A passenger in the car driven by his wife, Mrs. Agnes Jean Lambert, he suffered a possible fractured skull and fractured ribs.

WITNESSES said he was in the rear seat at the time of the crash.

The mishap occurred in the center of the intersection. The truck rammed the car broadside, directly in the middle.

Mrs. Lambert suffered a laceration of the right eyebrow. Mrs. Ruby Lambert, 57, of Riverdale R. D. 1 was admitted and later released. Also a passenger, she suffered contusions of the shoulder and leg and a fractured right arm.

Loretta Dusky, 16, of Fairmount, W. Va., also was admitted overnight with a possible fractured nose and contusions of the left leg and her sister, Betty Dusky, 14, was treated for contusions of the left leg.

TWO LAMBERT children injured were Rodney 7, abrasions of the face, and Robert, 11, lacerations of the forehead and abrasions of the face. The car was demolished. It was towed to Chester. The truck driver apparently escaped injury.

Pennsylvania State Police investigated. Mary L. Reardin, 17, daughter of Mrs. Mary Alice Reardin of Hookstown R. D. 1, was the driver of the car in which the teen-agers were hurt. She is in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with a fractured arm.

SHE WAS forced off Route 30 near Laughlin's Corners by another car, according to the family of one of her companions.

The car then rammed a utility pole.

Five of her friends and a sister also were treated at the hospital.

Her sister, Cynthia Lee Reardin, 15, was treated for contusions of the right arm.

Deborah Ryland, 15, daughter of Charles Ryland of Clinton R. D. 1, had abrasions and contusions of the knees and contusions of the right elbow.

LINDA LITTELL, 17, daughter of Norman Littell of Aliquippa R. D. 1, was X-rayed for possible injuries of the knees, elbows and left hand.

Andrea Wyanchik, 17, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Wyanchik of Aliquippa, suffered body contusions.

Nancy Floyd, 16, daughter of Leland Floyd of Hookstown, and Marilyn Irons, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Irons of Hookstown R. D. 1, both were examined, but had no apparent serious injury.

The Carnegie Barracks of the Pennsylvania State Police investigated.

Goldwater Backs Burch

GOP Showdown Looms Over Party's Chairman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's support of Dean Burch's claim that he has "a four-year contract" to head the Republican National Committee pushed bickering Republicans today toward a showdown over control of their party machinery.

Burch said Sunday he will fight back if anyone tries to oust him.

Among others, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York made it clear they will use all the influence they have to force a change in leadership of the national committee.

Goldwater said on his return Sunday night from a Jamaican vacation after his defeat by President Johnson that the party should honor Burch's "contract." Goldwater picked Burch for the chairmanship after his own nomination at the San Francisco convention and the committee in turn elected the Phoenix, Ariz., lawyer.

Burch has scheduled a January meeting of the national committee at which he has said he would stand or fall on a vote of confidence.

An Associated Press survey showed that the comparatively few national committee members willing to express an opinion were about evenly divided on whether the chairman should step aside because of his part in the election campaign. Many members of the committee said something must be done to rebuild the party, but not many were specific about what form this should take.

Veteran politicians had expected Burch to save his $30,000-a-year job by some conciliatory statement that he would serve all party factions as a non-policy-making director.

This would have followed the pattern of Goldwater's statement that the Republican course in the next four years will be carved out by GOP members of the Senate and House under the leadership of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Burch, accompanying Goldwater on his return, said that as chairman he would be "mechanic and technician, not a creator of policy." But, he added, he had been elected for a four-year term, intends to serve it out and if anybody thought to oust him, he would fight back.

Goldwater backed up this statement with the observation that Burch was under contract to the party.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon told newsmen on his arrival in Tokyo Sunday that a GOP comeback hinges on finding new leadership "that is acceptable to all elements within the party, from Goldwater at one end of the spectrum to Rockefeller at the other." He emphasized his call for new leadership was not necessarily a call for new faces and said that if party leaders decide Burch "could be chairman for all the party, he could become part of that new leadership."

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a liberal who gave Goldwater a faint endorsement in the campaign, is one of those seeking to get rid of Burch. Scott could testify that he escaped ouster as national chairman in 1949 by a one-vote margin on a committee ballot.

Rockefeller said on the ABC "Issues and Answers" television program that he expects a change in national leadership of the party, and made it plain that he had Burch in mind.

The New York governor said that choice of a new chairman was the responsibility of the national committee, of which he is not a member.

Lodge said on NBC's "Meet the Press" program he doesn't think that in reorganization the Republicans ought to read anybody out of the party. But he said he believes there ought to be established a permanent advisory council of leading Republicans such as he said had been suggested by Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, a former national chairman.

Lodge, who was Nixon's running mate in 1960, said that a suggestion by Goldwater that the parties ought to be realigned on a liberal and conservative basis was "totally foreign to the two-party system."

Charged With Spying

U.S. Missionary Faces Execution By Congolese

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Dr. Paul Carlson, an American medical missionary who refused to abandon his Congolese patients behind rebel lines, is to be executed in Stanleyville today, a rebel broadcast announced.

The rebels charged Carlson, 36, was a major in the U.S. armed forces.

(In Washington the Pentagon said Carlson is not a military man.)

U.S. Embassy officials in Leopoldville said Carlson, 36, belonged to the Protestant mission Evangelique de L'Ubangi which has its headquarters at the Covenant World Mission in Chicago.

They said Carlson's only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy between 1946 and 1948.

Carlson was captured by the rebels on Sept. 21 at Yakoma, north of Stanleyville on the Congo's border with the Central African Republic. He had radioed earlier that he intended to stay behind to treat sick and wounded.

Christophe Gbenye, self-proclaimed president of the Communist-backed "Congolese Peoples' Republic" in Stanleyville, announced last month that Carlson was being held in the rebel capital, awaiting trial.

In Chicago, Dr. Arden Almquist, executive secretary of Covenant World Missions, said Carlson "definitely is not a spy."

Hancock Group Opens Christmas Seal Sales

The 58th annual sale of Christmas Seals by the Hancock County Tuberculosis League began today and the league plans to mail seals and letters to county residents within a few days.

Proceeds from the sale of the Christmas Seals provide the league with funds for a program aimed at controlling tuberculosis.

Sale chairmen in the communities are: Mrs. Bennie Martin of Newell; Mrs. F. N. Richmond of Chester; Mrs. Paul Wern of Pughtown; Mrs. Earl Bell of New Cumberland; and Mrs. Ronald W. Austin of Weirton.

Light Shower Helps Reduce Fire Dangers

An intermittent light shower that began Sunday night and continued this morning did little to relieve drought conditions, but it helped ease fire danger in the tinder dry forests of the Tri-State area.

The rain will help usher in much colder weather, shoving Indian Summer into the background — at least temporarily — the Ohio forecaster said.

It will be cloudy, windy and much colder tonight, with a low of 34-39 degrees. There will be partial clearing Tuesday and the wind will diminish, but the weather will remain much cooler, the weatherman added.

The rain, light as it was, still was expected to dampen leaves and grass and sharply reduce the danger of fires throughout the region.

Countless brush fires have plagued firemen in the last few weeks as a result of the lack of normal autumn rainfall.

The rain brought a half-inch of precipitation to Cincinnati, while Toledo measured a quarter of an inch.

Throughout the eastern half of the United States, forest fires continued to ravage dry woodlands.

Erhard Set To Seek Red China Trade

Contacts Could Put Political Pressure Upon East Germany

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany wants to renew official contacts with Red China in the spring, a top official of the Bonn government reports. An exchange of trade missions could result, but the chief goal is political.

Talks between the two governments would not take place until Chancellor Ludwig Erhard explained his position to President Johnson, the official said.

"Now that the American elections are over, we can move ahead in our dealings with Red China," he added.

West Germany and Red China signed a one-year trade agreement in 1957, but it was not renewed. German and Chinese officials held preliminary talks earlier this year. The Chinese Communists said then they were willing to sign a new trade agreement with West Germany providing for an exchange of trade missions and including a clause stating that West Berlin is considered economically and politically part of West Germany.

West Germany already has trade agreements containing such a clause with the Communist governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. This has undermined the Soviet and East German position that Germany is divided into three separate units — East and West Germany and West Berlin.

Fumes Claim 3 Children In Pennsylvania

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — A family that lost three children by gas fumes 10 years ago lost three more children today, apparently the same way.

Five-year-old twins, Karey, a boy, and Kathy Treese, and their sister, Linda, 15 months, were found dead in the family car parked near their home in Marion Center R. D. 1.

The parents, Harry, 42, and his wife, Clara, 37; daughter Donna, 7, and son Richard, about 6, were found unconscious in the car.

They were taken to Indiana Hospital where the admitting officer, Mrs. Veda Moore, said the family apparently was overcome by auto exhaust fumes.

On Oct. 23, 1954, three other children in the family were killed by fumes while the family was living at Beckers Point, also in Indiana County. The victims then were Robert, 5; Gloria, 3; and Shirley, 23 months. Authorities ruled they died of carbon monoxide poisoning and said the fumes apparently came from a defective flue.

The father and Donna were hospitalized in serious condition and the mother and Richard were listed in satisfactory condition.

Plane Crashes, Sinks Off Lake Erie Island

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP) — A duck hunter reported the crash of a five-passenger airplane into Lake Erie near Kelleys Island this morning, and Coast Guard searchers found a wing floating and an oil slick on the water.

Fog hampered the dragging operations and skin diving efforts at the spot where the plane went down, about 800 feet off the southern tip of Kelleys Island.

Intruders Scale Roof, Open Safe

Burglars smashed open a safe in a West End vending machine company's offices Saturday night or early Sunday after scaling the roof to gain entrance, police reported.

The intruders escaped with an undetermined amount in cash after cracking the 2-x-5-foot safe in the offices of Hune, Inc., 237 W. 8th St., officers said.

The burglary was timed between 11:05 p. m. Saturday and 12:07 p. m. Sunday.

AN EMPLOYEE told officers he worked until 11:05 Saturday night and nothing was a miss when he left. He said he discovered the entry when he returned to work Sunday.

Officers said the burglars climbed to the roof, broke a skylight and then cut a hole in the roof to gain entrance to the building.

The burglars then forced open a door leading downstairs to the offices, police said.

AFTER ripping open the safe, the burglars apparently left via a loading door on the north side of the building, police said. A bar was used to peel metal off the back of the safe, officers added.

The concern operates vending machines, including devices that dispense cigarettes. Robert T. McDaniel is president.

The burglary was reported to Patrolman William A. Devon, desk officer at headquarters, and the investigation was made by Lt. Kenneth Mooney and Patrolman Jerry Adkins.

IT WAS the second safe burglary in East Liverpool in a little more than two weeks.

Intruders entered the Moose Lodge on E. 3rd St. early the morning of Oct. 29 and forced open two safes containing a total of $4,200.

The burglars escaped with $3,000 from a safe in the lodge office and another $1,200 from a strongbox behind the bar.

The intruders entered by unbolting a big ventilation fan built into the wall and then climbing through the opening.

Plans Revealed Today

Classic Simplicity Slated For Kennedy Monument

WASHINGTON (AP) — A low monument of classically simple design will mark John F. Kennedy's grave on a hillside overlooking the capital.

It will include the eternal flame the president's widow lighted over his grave on that chilly, sad day of his funeral almost one year ago.

Plans for the permanent gravesite in Arlington National Cemetery were to be disclosed today — six days before the first anniversary of Kennedy's assassination in Dallas — by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and architect John Carl Warnecke at a late morning news conference at the National Gallery of Art.

Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy, the late president's brother, was to be on hand to represent the family, which approved the plans in advance.

The models for the gravesite will be put on public display at the gallery for one month, beginning Tuesday. Construction is expected to begin soon.

The grave is down a gentle slope from the Custis-Lee mansion where Kennedy, on a bright March day some nine months before his death, stood looking

Parked Car Struck By Palestine Auto Goes Over Curb

A 34-year-old East Palestine man was cited on charges of driving while intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident as the aftermath of an East End collision Saturday night in which a parked car was rammed from the rear and shoved over the curb onto the lawn of a home.

Patrolman Paul A. Burson Jr. jailed Kenneth J. Cantwell, 35, E. Clark St., East Palestine, in the collision on Ohio Ave. Saturday at 11:35 p. m. that damaged a parked 1962 sedan owned by James R. McGurran, 859 Ohio Ave., and the property of Angelo Fiorillo, 855 Ohio Ave., police said.

Cantwell blamed the crash on an unidentified woman passenger. He told police the woman "grabbed ahold of me and the next thing I knew I hit the parked car." He added that "she kept telling me to take off and I did."

Police said Cantwell's 1955 four-door sedan was traveling west on Ohio Ave. near Belek St. when it hit the McGurran auto and shoved it across the curb onto the Fiorillo property, damaging two small trees and the concrete sidewalk.

The collision damaged the right front of Cantwell's car and the left rear and front end of the McGurran auto, including a tire, officers said.

Cantwell was arraigned this morning before Municipal Judge

Blaze Destroys Clay Concern In Cameron

CAMERON, W. Va. (AP) — An investigation was under way today into the fire that destroyed the Cameron Clay Products Co. plant here Sunday.

Plant Manager William Chandler said the fire may have been started by an explosion in one of the plant's kilns.

The firm operated in a two-story brick building and produced ceramic bases for household lamps. It had a payroll of about 40 employees.

Firefighting units from seven Marshall County communities were summoned to help fight the blaze. No injuries were reported.

Plane Rams Peak During Landing Try

Wreckage Spotted Following All-Night Search Over Area

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Wreckage of a propjet airliner with 28 persons aboard was sighted early today on a mountain peak about 16 miles southwest of here, sheriff's search units reported.

Deputies said all on the plane were killed.

First reports said the wreckage was scattered on a peak eight miles south of the community of Arden.

Sheriff's units reported spotting the twin-engine plane about 7 a.m., after searching all night in the desert area near Arden.

Searchers were directed to the area by a motorist who told officers he saw the plane skimming the ground in a whirl of snow eight miles south of the city. The witness said the plane had one wheel down, as if it were trying to land.

The Fairchild F27, Bonanza Airline's Flight 114 from Phoenix, Ariz., was three minutes from a landing at McCarran Field when it vanished from the radar screen at 8:27 p.m.

The plane was heading northeast, dropping down into the mountain-rimmed Las Vegas valley for an instrument landing.

Sheriff's officers said Bob Baker, a Las Vegas man, told them: "I was driving on Highway 91 between 8 and 8:30 p.m. when I saw a Bonanza plane, 70 to 100 feet off the ground, heading southeast. There were no landing lights on. One landing gear was down."

Baker's location was about where the plane was last sighted on radar but his sighting gave the plane a different direction: south instead of north.

Snow Batters West Areas, Blocks Roads

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A snowstorm that blitzed the Rocky Mountains Sunday brought blizzards to northern Arizona and spilled wintry weather across normally mild central and southern deserts.

Hundreds of motorists were stranded, hunters marooned and 13 persons reported missing as the late-afternoon blizzard struck the Kingman area in Arizona's northwest corner. All the missing later were found safe.

Arizona 93, the main route from Phoenix to Las Vegas, Nev., was closed by the highway patrol after at least 100 cars were stranded about 15 miles south of Kingman.

The Arizona Highway Patrol also shut off U.S. 66 to the east, and the Mohave County sheriff's office dispatched its jeep posses into snow-swept desert mountains south of Kingman in search of the lost, who were mostly hunters. All were found by late Sunday night.

Sheriff Floyd Cisney said he'd never seen a heavier storm so early in the year.

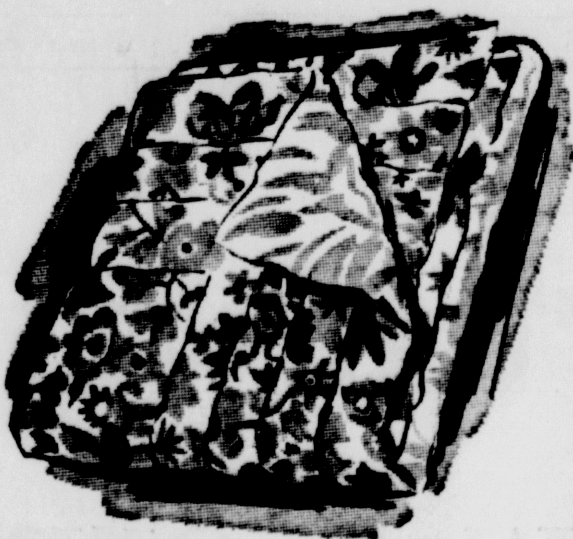

Deputy Pearl Misak said,

Penalty Given To 4 Drivers; 5th Forfeits

Four motorists were fined, another forfeited bonds totaling $75 and a continuance was granted another defendant in traffic hearings today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

A hearing was rescheduled for Tuesday morning for Larry Eugene Snyder, 2135 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., who pleaded innocent to a charge of operating a motor vehicle with an improper taillight.

Judge Chertoff ordered the continuance to permit the arresting officer, Patrolman Paul Blevins, to appear.

The judge also set sentencing tomorrow morning for Snyder on a charge of driving with defective headlights. The East End man had pleaded guilty to that count.

Snyder was cited Saturday night on Pennsylvania Ave., police said.

Patricia Ann Kraft, 233 Center St., was fined $15 and costs after pleading guilty to speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. The Beechwood housewife was cited Saturday night by the State Highway Patrol.

Obie Smith of Newell, cited by city police Saturday night for speeding 50 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone on W. 8th St., drew a fine of $10 and costs.

Gary D. Rhodes, 1236 Pennsylvania Ave., also was fined $10 and costs on a charge of passing on the right. He was cited Friday afternoon on Pennsylvania Ave. near Park Way.

Richard Lee Beckwith, 217 Cherry Ln., drew a fine of $5 and costs after pleading guilty to making an illegal turn from Washington St. onto E. 5th St. Saturday at 6:48 p. m.

Matthew Phillips of New Cumberland forfeited bonds of $17.50 and $57.50, respectively, on charges of crashing a stop sign at River Rd. and State St. and improper registration. He was cited early Friday afternoon.

A hearing is scheduled Thursday morning for Paul Albert of Cleveland on a charge of speeding 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. He was cited at 5:50 p. m. Friday on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd. by the patrol.

Armed Girl Trio Robs Gas Station At Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—George Niles, 24-year-old Dayton service station attendant, told police he was robbed of $60 early today by three girls armed with knives and a gun.

Niles said the girls had purchased some gas last night and returned on foot this morning about 2 o'clock. He said they produced the weapons and demanded money after questioning him at length about automobiles.

Samuel M. Chertoff, but the hearings were continued until Thursday morning when the defendant asked time to consult an attorney. His $615 bond was continued.

Patrolman Burson said McGurren chased the East Palestine man's car down the River Rd. and finally succeeded in halting him and securing his license number.

When the East End man went to phone police, Cantwell drove off again, he said.

Police broadcast an alarm, including a description of the car and license, and Deputy Sheriff Dave Brothers took Cantwell into custody shortly after midnight as the driver turned off Route 7 onto the Clarkson Rd., Officer Burson said.

A Beaver County youth was cited as an aftermath of another collision Saturday at 3:19 p. m. on Harker Ave. 50 feet east of Central Ave., police said.

The collision involved a parked 1960 sedan owned by Mary L. Johnson, 1238 Harker Ave., and a 1950 sedan operated by Squire Barbee Jr., 18, of Aliquippa, police reported.

Barbee said he was backing west about 5 miles an hour and did not see the Johnson auto. There was damage to the left front quarter panel and door of the Johnson car and the rear bumper and quarter panel of the Barbee auto, police said.

Barbee was cited on a charge of improper backing. Arraigned before Judge Chertoff this morning, Barbee was fined $10 and costs after pleading guilty.

A collision on Park Way 50 feet south of Park Blvd. Saturday at 9:22 a. m. damaged a 1963 sedan driven by Alfred E. Stoddard, 73, of Park Way and a 1964 sedan driven by Wilma Rockenhouser, 50, of R. D. 3, officers said.

Stoddard reported he was backing on the highway and had just started to turn to drive downgrade when his auto was hit by the southbound Rockenhouser car.

The woman said she did not see Stoddard's car in time to avoid the collision, although she applied her brakes.

Two autos were damaged in a minor mishap Sunday at 7 p. m. on W. 4th St., police reported.

Francis M. Poynter, 410 W. 4th St., told police he was pulling from a parking spot when he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and his auto bumped a parked auto carrying Pennsylvania license plates.

Poynter said he looked through the neighborhood for the owner of the other car, but was unable to find him, then reported to the police station. He gave officers a description of the other car and its license number. Officers termed the investigation "incomplete" because the ownership of the second car had not been determined.

Carroll Crash Hurts Salineville Resident

A Salineville woman was hospitalized with injuries suffered in a one-car crash Sunday at 4 p. m. on Route 164, south of Salineville in Carroll County. The State Highway Patrol at Wintersville said Nellie Mitcheson, 62, of 118 Commerce St. was injured when her car flipped onto its top.

She was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with a possible spine injury.

Officers said she was headed north on Route 164 when she went off the right side of the highway on a curve. The car then skidded back across the highway and went off the left side. The vehicle rammed into an embankment and flipped over on the top, coming down on a fence.

She was cited for driving left of center, officers said.

Plane

gathered on Highway 91 — the road between Los Angeles and Las Vegas — near the railroad-siding settlement of Arden, where Baker said he had seen the plane.

The season's first snow was falling heavily as the search was launched. Soon after the F27 disappeared McCarran Field was closed to traffic. Another Bonanza plane, Flight 104, landed north of the city at Nellis Air Force Base.

Six to eight inches of snow covered the open desert country near Arden, and higher drifts stalled many rescue-party cars.

The highway and the railroad run through the bottom of the 4,500-foot-high valley, which is within sight of the neon glow of the Las Vegas strip to the north. Most of the valley is open country where a plane could possibly survive a forced landing.

Not many miles away on the east and west are mountains. On the west, in the Clark Mountains, slopes climb steeply to 8,504-foot Potosi Mountain. To the east foothills rise to 5,000-foot heights.

Bonanza officials hoped at first the plane might have been flown to another field after its pilot somehow lost radio communications. The plane carried enough fuel to keep it aloft until 11 p. m.

Soon after that Myron Reynolds, Bonanza's vice president in charge of operations, told newsmen: "The fuel point has been passed. We must assume the plane is down. We just don't know where."

Thanks!

The magnificent 1965 Cadillac is once again in production. Our thanks to those unprecedented numbers of people who have already placed their orders. Their patience will soon be rewarded.

All eleven models of the great 1965 Cadillac are once again coming off the production line—and into showrooms. We regret that production had to be delayed more than a month following the announcement of this great new car. For we know the inconvenience that it caused the thousands of devoted Cadillac admirers who have placed their orders. But patience is seldom as richly rewarded as it will be for those who take title to this magnificent automobile—easily the most exciting Cadillac in history. Its new beauty and luxurious interiors surpass even traditional Cadillac standards. Its many personal options have made it the most desired automobile of all time. And its new handling ease must be experienced to be believed. See and drive this great car soon.

So new! So right! So obviously Cadillac

The Great Label Upheaval

Long before the Nov. 3 vote had been counted, those amazing computers had revealed what was going to happen. Then they proceeded to tell why, based on their "observations."

There had been a massive uprooting of label allegiances. Masses of voters once counted on to vote Republican because they lived in places where heavy Republican majorities were traditional had walked away from their party allegiance. They had failed to support the top of the party ticket in droves and had taken the cutting edge off their support of other Republican candidates.

On a miniature scale, the same thing happened among Democratic voters. Scores of thousands of Democrats in once-solid Democratic states walked out of their one-party allegiance and voted Republican. In four Southern states, they elected presidential electors pledged to the Republican ticket. In all Southern states they amassed ponderous Republican totals.

WHAT IS happening? What might be the long-term effect of this fluidity that washed away traditional majorities?

How is it going to be possible to preserve a two-party system if voters won't stay hitched?

This isn't just a Republican problem. Democrats are as worried about it in the Deep South and the border states as Republicans in New England and the Farm Belt.

There is no sound reason to believe that the fluidity has run its course. Even the Negro vote, which now goes Democratic by majorities running upward to 100 per cent, could change. It was not so many years ago, after all, that the Negro vote was dependably Republican.

Merely to say that the two-party system will survive the landslide that buried the Goldwater leadership of the Republican party Nov. 3 is meaningless. Of course it will survive, just as differences of opinion will survive.

THE QUESTION is how much of the trappings of the familiar two-party system will survive. How much will survive of traditional Republicanism? How much traditional Democratic credo has survived?

The Republican-Democratic political division is in a state of chaos. The experts don't know what to make of it, except that it isn't what it used to be and may never be the same again.

The massive uprooting of label allegiance in the 1964 election made political history.

The Wolf With Wings

When the United States heard that Britain and France were going to combine resources to build a supersonic airliner, it hardly could wait to get started. The late President Kennedy threw the resources of the federal government behind a program to compete with the Anglo-French partnership. The prestige of U.S. aviation was at stake.

The country whose planes had been the world standard for high-speed, dependable transport couldn't let the British and French steal a march when aviation was entering the supersonic era. Incentive to get moving was provided by Pan American World Airways, which announced it was ready to buy six of the Anglo-French planes when they were ready for market.

SO MUCH for the wolf that had wings in 1963—the threat to the security of U.S. aviation. Since then, U.S. aviation has been moving. Free enterprise has rushed to the rescue, with a thumping guarantee of government assistance.

Development studies are being rushed to show how a supersonic airliner not only can be built but made to pay. Bankers have been called in.

British Overseas Aviation Corp. has placed an order. U.S. airlines have placed orders.

Federal Aviation Administration has put a full head of official steam behind a supersonic airliner.

Meanwhile, the British government—the new one—wants to scrap the deal with France because development costs are excessive and the Labor party is committed to an economy program.

THE WINGED WOLF that was going to swoop down and make a shambles of the U.S. aviation industry can't even get off the ground.

But U.S. aviation is going to have a supersonic airliner no matter how much it costs.

There's no economy drive here—not as long as the government can explain that it is helping the aviation industry.

One Touch Of Creativity

The most discussed idea in public school planning for years to come may be the plaza concept of the East Orange, N.J., school board.

Key to the discussion should be the origin of the concept. This was no planner's dream foisted on an impressionable school board. It was a school board's businesslike reaction to an actual problem in a densely populated community.

There was a need for additional school buildings and for extensive repairs to old school buildings. Instead of reacting with a plan for piecemeal construction, the East Orange board members thought of the possibility of starting a central educational plaza, with the ultimate intention of locating all community educational facilities on one "campus."

The over-all capital cost would be no greater than scattered construction. But the improvement in efficiency could be sensational, it is believed. There could be an infinite flexibility of management and curriculum. The plaza, it is pointed out, would be in continuous operation. It would be the East Orange educational center for everybody, young, old, elementary, high school, college, night school student, junior college—the whole academic spectrum in one place.

The proposal has not been accepted officially. It is still in the discussion stage in East Orange. But one thing about it is dead certain. It will be the most discussed idea in educational circles, where creativity is at a premium.

Letter From Max

One of my pastimes is reading heavy think-pieces that I have no hope of understanding, while all the time on our kitchen table is a small vase holding three sansevieria plants that need transplanting to individual pots.

That sentence in itself is a good example of what I mean. First of all you may ask, "What is a sansevieria plant?"

Then some purist will say that each "that" should have been a "which," unless of course "that" is pure English, in which case I must apologize for stepping out of character.

You may know what a sansevieria is, but in case you don't it is one of those common household plants of the lily family with, as the dictionary says, long, fibrous sword-shaped leaves that stick up in the air.

Since I already have probably lost your interest I may as well explain that hope springs eternal, and this is why I read articles I don't fully understand. It is sort of like playing euchre, checkers, chess or tennis with better players than yourself because you learn more than if you played with less skillful players.

And this, of course, provides an opportunity to inquire how you are doing with your euchre, checkers, chess and tennis? Better, I hope.

they could reach their advanced stage of civilization while we are still struggling in a jungle of primitives.

The professor lost me a couple of places along the way, but that is more my fault than his.

AT ONE POINT, he says when physicists try to become sociologists they are no longer good physicists and another time he says he is an astronomer and therefore better able to accommodate theories of space life and earth life.

And at the beginning of his article he said young scientists and amateurs usually knocked themselves out by tackling the big problems instead of the small ones which appeared ripe for solution.

That is enough for me.

I may not be a young scientist, but I sure am an amateur scientist. The immediate problem is to go down in the basement and get some flower pots, fill them with dirt and transplant them there sansevieria cluttering up the kitchen table.

If you got any extra pots, I'll be around in a day or two to pick some up.

By Jupiter, I just put in a call for Venus and got Pluto.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Odd Facts

The famous Chinese bird's nest soup is made from the nest of a kind of swift called the selangane. The nest consists of a mucilaginous substance secreted by glands in the mouth of the bird. The birds live in caves which are numerous in northern Sumatra, and the owners of those caves enjoy a good income from gathering the nests and selling them for as much as $15 a pound. Bird's nest soup is an expensive delicacy, but is available in many good Chinese restaurants and gourmet food shops.

Reds Use Capitalist Dollars Like Mad

was originally scheduled for Havana. But an equally warm reception was promised by Algeria.

THE CONGRESS, amply attended by scores of American "youth", will open in Algiers next August. But the recruitment headquarters will be functioning here long before that gathering is officially announced. The Communists now are preparing to open special youth offices in New York.

All this action consumes considerable money. Who is providing the funds? Ours is an open society. The people have the right to know.

It would also be intriguing to learn why the massive Soviet Union has been escalating the American Communist party among Marxists organizations of the world.

Why does the Soviet politburo consider the small 10,000-member CPUSA so important? It can't be that Moscow simply wants the American party "vote" in the coming convalescence of the Marxist world. There must be other reasons since there is no longer any doubt that the giant OPSU has been coddling the small CPUSA.

AND CODDLED it has been. Few Americans are aware that the late American Communist party chairman, Elizabeth Flynn, was given an expensive and full-scale state funeral in Moscow when she died there early in September.

For her final rites, tens of thousands of Russians were ordered massed in Red Square. They carried thousands of large portraits of Miss Flynn all bordered in red and black cloth. The scene was televised. Powerful leaders eulogized her from atop Lenin's mausoleum, a place of honor generally reserved for Communism's legendary figures.

The previous day she had lain in state in the imposing national labor headquarters and her honor guard had been none other than N. S. Khrushchev, then all-mighty chairman of the Soviet Union.

ALL THIS for a leader of a small party, a woman few had ever heard of inside the U.S.S.R.

Why does the Soviet Union want to keep the American party alive and give it flattery and prominence?

Certainly the Soviets don't need the CPUSA for espionage operations in the U.S. The Russians are amply supplied. They can work through their U.S. purchasing agency, Amtorg, and through their missions. At least one member of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations has been apprehended by the FBI's counter-espionage agents each year for the last decade.

There are other Communist missions and embassies in Washington. They have their quota of spies who violate the diplomatic code.

No, the Soviets don't need the Communist party for espionage operations. The Soviets do need the party for two major propaganda thrusts:

The issuance of statements denouncing the U.S., for example, for our action in Viet Nam so it can appear to the Asians that the American people are opposed to holding off Communist invasion.

And to develop an apparatus which can recruit Americans, especially the youth, for mass demonstrations on the streets of our big cities.

For this there will always be a Red budget.

More Pump Priming

By David Lawrence

Excise Tax Action Stirs Questions

The administration evidently has decided that it has to prime the pump again. The decision to repeal some of the excise taxes and reduce others in order to stimulate business in 1965 is a recognition of the possibility of a downturn that year.

There is no promise forthcoming as to David Lawrence when the budget will be balanced, though Secretary of the Treasury Dillon says this is not likely before 1968. The immediate consideration, however, is to keep the economy booming through 1965 and into 1966, when the next congressional elections will be held.

The experts who are masterminding the national economy through the exercise of governmental power scoff at the idea of a balanced budget, at least until full employment has been reached.

The deficits are being defended as necessary because of the unemployment. Yet the rosy stories of prosperity which were circulated during the presidential campaign were for the most part unqualified.

Concurrently, wages are being raised and costs are rising because of this increase. Many businesses, therefore, which cannot raise prices in order to absorb the higher wage rates will find themselves with shrunken profits, and this could diminish tax receipts from business in a considerable amount next year.

The argument, of course, is being made that businessmen should hold down their prices, and there is talk about certain "guidelines" which the administration would like to see them follow.

Unfortunately, the government "guidelines" are being disregarded by the labor - union leaders, and some time between now and next spring the steel industry will be confronted with a new labor contract which may inevitably force an upward trend in its prices.

ALL THIS is usually referred to as the inflationary process but some of the administration advisers brush off the talk about inflation as relatively unimportant. They point out that there has been a period of wage-price stability, and they are hopeful it can be continued. Nobody seems to know exactly how this is going to be accomplished, especially in the face of such sharp increases in wage costs as were recently embodied in the contracts between the automobile manufacturers and the Auto Workers Unions.

Undoubtedly, the conferences to be held in the next few weeks are in preparation for President Johnson's recommendations to the new Congress in January. One thing is clear — the economic condition of the country is being studied more than ever from a political angle.

GOVERNMENT spending doubtless will be increased, even though it's being announced that the new budget is going to be held down to $100 billion. Such savings as are made will be largely in the defense area, but these will be offset by increased spending on the social welfare programs. It may take several years before the government's policy on deficit spending is proved fallacious but eventually, as the purchasing power of the dollar declines, the big problem will be whether the unprecedented growth in mortgage credit and other factors, especially the balance-of-payments difficulties, may produce new causes for concern in the year 1965 as well as 1966.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

For several days we have observed the spectacle of turmoil and confusion at some of the Beaver Local grade schools generated by an obviously fervent but misguided group of adults.

Numerous automobiles have been maneuvered and parked so as to barricade and harass the bus drivers in the legitimate performance of their duties.irate mothers have attempted to impede the movement of buses by standing in front of them, evidently to prevent children who are legally entitled to transportation from being transported to their ultimate destination.

It is unfortunate that our children have been exposed to the sight of grownups behaving in this deplorable manner. Their emotional theme "We are only concerned for the safety of our children" has a hollow ring.

When one assays the number of man hours and automobiles employed so far in these demonstrations it is quite obvious that these people possess the vehicles and time to organize car pools so they personally can guarantee safe conduct to their children. But these people, in the heat of anger, have done little cool-headed constructive thinking.

The myth that something has been taken from them (taxi-like bus service) that they were entitled to has inflamed them beyond the reasoning process.

Let us examine the facts. In years past the Beaver Local Board of Education has provided transportation far in excess of their obligation by law. Now, faced with rising costs and rejection from the voters of the 5.4 mill levy, the very survival of our school system requires stringent cutbacks in all non-academic expenditures. The board's action, which precipitated these recent spectacles, has been nothing more than restoring to the parents in question a responsibility that has always been parental — legally and morally — that these parents get their children to school. No one ruled that they must walk. Parents who sincerely regard walking as unsafe can arrange neighborhood car pools. Car pools are utilized every day by parents of school athletes and none of them find it necessary to stage protest demonstrations.

As to the lack of sidewalks in some critical areas, they can be constructed and the cost assessed to the local taxpayers if that is truly what the people want. It is certainly not the Board of Education's responsibility to utilize educational funds to make up for the lack of sidewalks in any specific community.

If one-tenth of the time and energy expended has been channeled by these same protesting individuals toward passing the levy their present problem would not exist. What a waste!

Let us all unite our efforts to pass the levy this coming January. This is the most obvious solution.

Man Escapes Injury When Auto Crashes

A city man escaped injury but his auto was demolished in a one-car crash north of East Liverpool Saturday night, one of 10 weekend accidents investigated by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Thomas Ross Pinkerton, 23, of R. D. 3 was cited for speed in excess of road and weather conditions after the crash at 10:45 p. m. Saturday on County Rd. 427, a half mile north of the city limits.

Officers said he failed to negotiate a curve and went off the right side of the highway, striking a utility pole. The car then rolled over on its top.

A 1961 compact was damaged extensively in a one-car crash Saturday at 12:15 a. m. on Township Rd. 1002, a half mile east of Route 45.

The patrol said James Lewis Sturgill, 18, of 481 John St. was the driver. He failed to make a curve and went off the left side of the highway, striking a fence post and a tree.

An officer discovered the accident about nine hours later while on routine patrol.

Nellie E. Stouffer, 64, of Washingtonville was injured when her car was forced off the highway by another on Route 344 just over a mile east of Leetonia Saturday at 2 p. m. She suffered a ruptured vein in her right arm and bruised knees.

Her car rammed a bridge abutment after it was forced off the right side of the highway, officers said. The other car did not stop.

Ronald Eugene McCully, 16, of Carrollton received abrasions of the head, right elbow and left knee when his car skidded off a curve and rolled over an embankment on Route 9 about two miles south of Route 30 Sunday at 2:45 a. m. He was cited for speeding.

Ethel W. McManus, 39, of 1943 Dresden Ave. was not injured when her car struck a deer on Route 7 about three and a half miles north of Route 152 Sunday at 5 a. m., the patrol reported. The animal was knocked to the highway, but got up and ran away.

The remainder of the accidents were in the northern and western sections of the county and involved no one from the immediate area.

Hancock 8 & 40 Unit Aids Yule Seal Work

Members of Salon 593 of the Hancock County 8 & 40 Society stuffed Christmas Seals in envelopes for mailing by the Hancock County Tuberculosis League at a meeting Wednesday night at the Chester American Legion home.

The group voted approval of purchasing a Health Bond from the TB League.

Plans were made to audit the books at a meeting Friday night with Mrs. Mae Hupp of Newell. Discussion was held on making favors for selling for Christmas.

The group's Christmas party will be Dec. 9 with Mrs. Hupp. Mrs. Alma Dalrymple, chapeau, presided.

Prowler Snips Wire In Field In Salineville

SALINEVILLE — A prowler cut barbed wire fencing at the John M. Chevront farm on Maple Hill Rd. Sunday night about 10.

Police Chief Earl Laney said the family spotted the prowler along the fence at the lower end of a field containing cattle.

The trespasser had fled by the time the chief arrived. The farm is located within the village limits.

Ohioan, 34, Arrested For Burglary In Erie

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Robert James Campbell, 34, of Willoughby, Ohio, has been arraigned on charges of armed robbery in the robbery of a Sears and Roebuck store here Saturday.

Erie police said Campbell, who allegedly took $1,215 from a startled cashier before he was subdued by several employees, pleaded guilty at the arraignment. He is held for court.

Herron Asks District Post In Lions Club

John D. Herron, veteran justice of the peace and municipal judge in New Cumberland, announced his candidacy for the post of governor of Lions District 29-L at a district cabinet meeting Sunday at the Esquire Club in Elm Grove. The office will be filled in May at the state Lions convention at Huntington.

Walter L. Jordan of Chester, district governor, presided at the luncheon meeting of his cabinet members, when several awards by Lions International were presented to last year's cabinet of Orien Creek.

Recipients included Albert Logston of Newell, who was zone chairman last year, and Squire Herron, past deputy district governor. They received large plaques for their work in increasing membership in the district.

In the administration of Jordan, Logston is serving as cabinet secretary, and Herron as extension chairman. Creek received a trophy for successfully advancing membership.

Reports were presented concerning activities of the 44 clubs in District 29-L. Seventeen cabinet members, seven international councilors and Vic Roberts of Martinsburg, state secretary, attended.

Besides Jordan, others attending from Hancock County were Logston, Squire Herron and Bill McGown of Newell, publicity chairman, and their wives. Robert Jefferson, deputy district governor of Region 1, was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Jefferson led the wives on a tour of Oglebay Park in Wheeling.

The next cabinet meeting will be Feb. 21 in Moundsville.

Wet Weather Follows Illinois Rain Dancing

CHICAGO (AP)—Indian dances were performed hundreds of years ago in attempts to bring rain, make crops grow and insure success in battle.

Hundreds of American Indians did their ritual dances this weekend for another reason — to raise money for their city-dwelling kinsmen who are new to the white man's ways. About 10,000 Indians live in Chicago. It may have been incidental, but a two-month Illinois drought was eased somewhat by a day-long rain Sunday.

The Indians were attending the 10th annual Pow-Wow, an annual fund-raising festival sponsored by the nonprofit American Indian Center in Chicago.

The first paper money was issued in the United States in 1862.

Both Will Get Refunds

$6-Per-Precinct Charge Set In 2 School Recounts

The County Election Board Saturday approved a charge of $6 per precinct in two school districts in which recounts confirmed defeats of bond issues for building programs.

A committee from United Local School District, where a $630,000 bond issue lost by 42 votes, will pay $42 for its recount, and the recount of a lone precinct in Fairfield-Waterford District, which upheld an 85-vote defeat for a $350,000 issue, will cost $6, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk.

Committees in the two school districts actually will be entitled to refunds since they had posted $10 for each precinct in which a recount was asked.

The board completed both recounts shortly before noon Saturday.

In the United Local district, the final tally in the 15 precincts was:

For	1,017
Against	1,059

The count on the Fairfield-Waterford issue was:

For	654
Against	739

There was a net change of six votes in the United Local District, with one more vote in favor and a loss of five votes by the opposition. There were 46 unmarked ballots in the district.

The official canvass completed a week ago showed the issue had been defeated, 1,016 to 1,064, a margin of 48.

In all but one instance, ballots which apparently had been counted in opposition to the issue were thrown out by the board because the voter's intent could not be determined, O'Hanlon said.

The recount was made of Butler Township East, Hanover Township North, Northeast and South precincts, Hanover township, Salem Township Northwest, and New Chambersburg in West Township.

Only in Hanover South was there an actual change in the count, with the proponents gaining one ballot and the opposition dropping one.

The opposition lost one vote in Butler East, two in the Northwest precinct of Salem Township, and one in New Chambersburg.

The count in West precinct of Fairfield Township remained unchanged from the official canvass, with 95 votes in favor of the bond issue and 202 opposed, O'Hanlon said. There were 18 blanks.

Chester Brautigham, executive head of United Local, witnessed the recount of the district's seven precincts.

He indicated no further action will be taken on the building program until next fall.

The committee from the Fairfield-Waterford District did not appear for the recount conducted by Carl L. Stacey and Don R. Gosney of Columbiana. Atty. Charles Pike and Atty. James McSweeney of Wellsville, Election Board members.

It was the third recount conducted on school issues last week by the election staff.

A recount Thursday confirmed the defeat of a new 5.4-mill operating levy in the Beaver Local School District, but reduced the margin from 50 to 31 votes.

THE FINANCEPLAN FOR THE WORKING MAN

er Township North, Northeast and South precincts, Hanover township, Salem Township Northwest, and New Chambersburg in West Township.

Only in Hanover South was there an actual change in the count, with the proponents gaining one ballot and the opposition dropping one.

The opposition lost one vote in Butler East, two in the Northwest precinct of Salem Township, and one in New Chambersburg.

The count in West precinct of Fairfield Township remained unchanged from the official canvass, with 95 votes in favor of the bond issue and 202 opposed, O'Hanlon said. There were 18 blanks.

Chester Brautigham, executive head of United Local, witnessed the recount of the district's seven precincts.

He indicated no further action will be taken on the building program until next fall.

The committee from the Fairfield-Waterford District did not appear for the recount conducted by Carl L. Stacey and Don R. Gosney of Columbiana. Atty. Charles Pike and Atty. James McSweeney of Wellsville, Election Board members.

It was the third recount conducted on school issues last week by the election staff.

A recount Thursday confirmed the defeat of a new 5.4-mill operating levy in the Beaver Local School District, but reduced the margin from 50 to 31 votes.

4-H News

New project books for the year were distributed when the Hanover Township Wide-Awake Girls 4-H Club held its third meeting Saturday at the home of Miss Adele Stankewitz. Four visitors were present.

Alice Gruber, president, presided. Roll call was answered by naming a favorite in the Beattie's group. The 4-H pledge and salute to the flag followed.

Miss Marian Bernet gave a demonstration on "First Aid" and a baby-sitters kit. A discussion on safety was held and it was decided that Misses Donna Smith and Stankewitz will make a scrap book on health and safety.

It was decided that all members should bring patterns and material to the next meeting. "Pen Point Questions" and a treasure hunt comprised the recreation. Lunch was served by Mrs. Stankewitz.

Mrs. Anna Gruber is adviser. The next meeting will be Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Misses Debbie and Patty Lindsmith. Miss Joy Glunt of Hanover is reporter.

Rites Slated For Ohio Executive Dead At 46

CHICAGO (AP)—A memorial service will be held at the Palatine Methodist Church Tuesday for Philip G. Duff, 46, vice president of the Eugene Dietzgen Co., maker of school and office supplies.

Thomas Edgell, 18, son of Paul Edgell of Andrew St., cut his thumb on a broken dish.

West Virginia Reports

Forest Fire Decrease

CHARLESTON (AP)—West Virginia's forest fire picture was somewhat brighter today as only about 48 fires remained unchecked in the state. Nearly all were in the southern portion.

Asst. State Forester A. S. Kelly said 175 fires were reported in the state Sunday, but fire crews by night had either extinguished or brought under control 127 of the blazes.

He emphasized, however, the burning index of the forests remains at a high level.

Conservation officials reiterated that forest land still is closed to everyone except firefighters or persons on authorized business.

Adopting A Child Much Simpler Today

You and I believe that most people who wish to adopt a child not only want to have a child to love but also want to provide for him a happier life and greater opportunity than he otherwise might have.

Dr. Garry Myers reading of how hard it is to find a baby for adoption. In an illuminating article in the August 23 issue of the Sunday New York Times, Peggy Streit cites strong indications that it's growing easier to adopt a baby.

THE U.S. Children's Bureau estimated 10 years ago that there were 90,000 adoptions a year and about a dozen couples wanting each of these children for adoption. In 1962—the latest year for which statistics are available—there were approximately 121,000 adoptions in the United States with only three or four couples for each. In this altered situation one sad fact remains: There are many more Negro babies available for adoption than the number of couples who want to adopt them.

Among the changing factors which seem to make adoption easier now than 10 years ago are:

With rapidly rising illegitimacy there has been an obvious rise in the number of babies available for adoption, and there may be fewer couples of adoptive age now. Medical progress has made it possible for women who once might have been considered barren to have babies. Moreover, the definition of an "adoptable" child has been broadened by Welfare Agencies.

SOCIAL agencies have been getting a more humane and compassionate approach, not expecting to find perfect couples for adoptive parents.

"They are coming to the conclusions that poor people can live as richly as the wealthy; that non-church-goers are not necessarily irreligious; that a 40-year-old can be younger in spirit than a 25-year-old." Also, as fewer couples are looking for the perfect child, a good many handicapped children have found parents.

There is a significant number of adoption of babies of mixed racial ancestry — Caucasian with Korean or Japanese or American Indian. There's been a shortening of the whole adoption procedure. In comparison to 10 years ago, the waiting period of two to three years by a couple to adopt a child is nearly half as long.

Many agencies are giving up the idea of "matching" a child with adoptive parents of similar physical and cultural traits — blond hair with blond hair, Danish ancestry with Danish ancestry, and so forth. The agencies get fewer pressures in these directions as adoptive parents are growing less eager to cover up the fact that their child is adopted. Generally adoption is coming to be considered entirely respectable.

THE AGE at which a child is put out by agencies for adoption has been substantially lowered. Today the majority of babies go to their new homes at the age of two months. A decade ago the infant was held for six months or a year for psychological and physical tests in order to be declared "normal" — suitable for adoption.

Most agencies now believe there is no test which can accurately predict a baby's future mental capacity and development.

2 Charges Face Man For Mishap

SALINEVILLE — Samuel Boyd Thompson, 24, of Pleasant Heights, Lisbon, was cited on two charges after his car ramed an embankment along Route 39 three-tenths of a mile west of the village limits Sunday at 12:50 a. m.

Police Chief Earl Laney and Marshall Gordon Swaney investigated. Thompson was headed east when he lost control of his car. It crossed over the highway and ramed the embankment on the left side, the report shows.

Thompson was cited for reckless operation and driving left of center. He will receive a hearing Thursday night at 7 before Mayor Stanley Fitch.

Guy L. Nicolette of Leontonia was cited for a stop sign violation Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the intersection of E. Main St. and Route 39.

Chief Laney issued a warning that a closer watch is to be kept on the stop signs and anyone failing to observe them will be cited.

People In News

LONDON (AP) — While Crown Princess Margrethe of Denmark danced at a gay house party Saturday night, burglars slipped into her bedroom and got away with her jewels.

Police said the noise of the music and dancing covered the thieves' escape.

NEW YORK (AP) — Associate Justice William J. Brennan Jr. of the U.S. Supreme Court says the court's decision on school prayer was "faithful to our society's judgment."

The court enjoined governmental institutions from requiring prayers in the public schools.

Brennan, speaking Sunday night at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, said many persons "have voiced concern that the prayer decisions portend the elimination of religion from every vestige of public life."

But, he said, in the religion clauses of the Constitution "our collective society has pronounced its own judgment that its governmental institutions may not officially involve religion in such a way as to prefer, discriminate or oppress a particular religion or religion in general."

NEW YORK (AP) — Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps, says the corps is starting a program to send hundreds of doctors abroad on health projects.

Shriver said Sunday that 100 doctors worked overseas as volunteers or on assignment from the U.S. Public Health Service last year.

Goose Seen As Cause Of Astronaut's Crash

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — An investigative board was expected to report today that a goose caused the fatal crash of astronaut Theodore C. Freeman's plane Oct. 31.

One of the birds reportedly pierced the cockpit of Freeman's T38 jet trainer and struck the astronaut in the face.

Flights of geese were observed flying close to the ground that day, and workers at the crash scene reportedly found feathers among the wreckage.

Dedication Scheduled At Pittsburgh Building

PITTSBURGH — The new Federal Office Building, a 23-story steel-framed structure at Grant St. and Liberty Ave., was to be dedicated today in special ceremonies.

Nearly 3,000 federal employees of 40 agencies scattered over the city will be housed in the building which has slablike ends, faced with limestone, and aluminum curtain walls.

The new FOB facility replaces three old federal buildings — the Old Post Office, the Victory Building and the Fulton Building.

Ballot Returns Upheld In Third District Race

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Failure to rotate names of congressional candidates on ballots in the Third District would not invalidate the Nov. 3 election there, William Harrington, elections counsel for Secretary of State Ted W. Brown, said today.

Harrington said election boards in Montgomery and Butler counties of the Third Congressional District were notified to certify returns despite complaints by Rep. Paul F. Schenck, Dayton Republican.

Schenck complained that names were not rotated in his race with Rodney Love, Dayton Democrat and former probate judge who won the Third District congressional seat.

Harrington conceded that rotation may not have been followed in the district but said it would have no effect on the election.

Good Lighting Leads To Dramatic Changes

Homemakers can modernize and improve the appearance of their homes simply by replacing obsolete and inadequate lighting fixtures.

"Homes that appear dingy and gloomy at night because of insufficient light can be transformed dramatically with the addition of a few up-to-date lighting fixtures," according to the American Home Lighting Institute.

The relatively low cost of re-lighting can be one of the best dollar-for-dollar investments in home modernization.

Inadequate lighting deprives you of the full measure of beauty you expect from your furnishings and decorating scheme and restricts family activities at night—work or play.

All visual beauty—color, patterns, textures and wood tones—needs soft, even lighting to stay rich and vibrant.

There is no way to retain the beauty of furnishings at night with the typical lighting arrangement of two or more widely-scattered pools of light such as you get from using only portable lamps.

The results are a few concentrations of light surrounded by dimness and shadows which swallow up the decorative highlights.

The results of such a lighting pattern are:

1. Except for those few areas, at the top and bottom of a shade, that get full concentration of light, furniture, walls, draperies and floor coverings tend to lose their color and texture.
2. We lose space in our rooms.

Research has proved that rooms which are not evenly lighted with wall and ceiling fixtures supplemented by local lighting for close-seeing tasks appear much smaller than they really are. The eye tends to "lose" the darker areas.

Since we congregate around light, we group furniture around our light sources and away from darkened room corners. The use of off-center lighting fixtures by many homemakers today actually liberates floor space. Many a dead corner has been transformed into a cozy conversation center by lighting up.

3. Inadequate and improper lighting restricts nighttime activities and is a liability on those we attempt.

For example, most homemakers have experienced extreme difficulty trying to sew dark fabrics with dark thread under the light of a low wattage lamp. Visual fatigue builds up so quickly they give it up. The results of many seeing jobs that require concentration—like a student's homework—are the same.

Finally, new lighting fixtures are designed to enhance and complement any decorative scheme.

They add decorative beauty, color and styling all of their own to give any room an exciting new appearance and made a real contribution to making your home and its inhabitants look and feel alive.

Here's Way To Repair Linoleum Counter Top

The more expensive covered counter tops usually have the metal edging covering the edges of the linoleum or plastic covering slightly higher and over the edges of the covering itself.

In the less costly equipment, the covering meets the edging, but is not held down by it. As a result, frequent soaking with water and detergents causes the edge of the material to bulge. Once this occurs it is almost impossible to make the bulging areas lie flat again. Re-cementing will not hold, as the bulge in the material is well set.

This condition can be cured, however, by a careful job of cutting. The actual procedure is to take a razor blade, preferably in a holder, and slice through the bulge at the highest point and right back to the spot where the bulge meets the normal level.

The next step is to lap over the two sides of the cut and then carefully draw a line along which to make another cut. In short, you want to cut out a segment or pie-shaped piece of the bulge so that when the two flaps are laid down again they will meet along the line of the

Panel Secrets

How To Handle 'Problem' Areas

The swelling population and the shrinking dollar have led to an increase in professional and do-it-yourself remodeling projects.

The cost of new housing and the expense of moving often prevent a growing family from seeking new quarters.

Instead, the home owner invests in redecorating or an add-a-room project. Prefinished paneling often proves an ideal material for refurbishing the home or finishing an additional space.

AS PRODUCERS of building products, the U.S. Plywood Corp. finds that family decorators now are aware of the wide selection of interior paneling in all price ranges, but ask for direction in the treatment of these panels for certain "problem" areas such as:

To minimize height, install grooved panels horizontally or combine a paneled wood wainscot with wallpaper or paint. To emphasize height use one or more grooved panels one above the other. Match grooves and butt joints for a visually vertical effect.

Use a light-toned ungrooved plywood panel on walls and ceiling or finish ceiling with grooved panels — the grooves running across the hall from side wall to side wall for a widening effect. If ceiling is too high, install a suspended light fixture and create a gallery for paintings or photographs.

PREFINISHED plywood paneling is practical except for tub and shower enclosure where the wood look may be continued by installing a high pressure laminate — like Micarta — in a matching or contrasting wood-grain pattern. Micarta should be bonded with waterproof contact glue to a substrate such as Novoply particle board.

Perforated hardboard panels are ideal for hanging house cleaning accessories and tools. For a winter storage closet, aromatic red cedar paneling is inexpensive and decorative.

Permagard plywood paneling for walls, cabinets and doors features a thermoplastic finish, developed specifically to withstand high humidity and heat. For countertops, sink and backsplash areas, use a high-pressure laminate. Both materials require only a damp "wipe" for maintenance.

Power Battle Within Union May Spur Steel Stockpiling

CLEVELAND (AP)—Steel inventories are likely to mount sharply unless the labor outlook in the industry brightens, Steel Magazine predicted today.

The national metalworking publications said a power struggle shaping up among top leaders in the United Steelworkers may spur stockpiling by steel users across the nation.

David J. McDonald, USW president the last 12 years, is being opposed in his bid for reelection by I. W. Abel, union secretary-treasurer. The election is set for next Feb. 9.

McDonald's "fight for survival" may force an early reopening of the steel labor contract, Steel said, "but it won't guarantee an early settlement."

Labor observers think "there's little chance of serious talk—let alone a settlement—before March," said Steel. The magazine quoted its sources as saying McDonald and his opponent won't have much time "for anything but campaigning" until after the election. It may be March before ballots are tabulated and results certified, Steel said.

If the union's wage police committee serves notice of contract termination Jan. 1, it will be free to strike May 1.

Looking ahead to possible inventory build-ups, Steel said: "Users who have tried to keep their stocks at minimum working levels will decide they can't gamble on a peaceful settlement."

If inventory building reaches expected proportions, Steel said, steelmakers will be hard pressed to supply the tonnage that customers want.

Shutters Add Extra Glamor

For the homemaker who wants to add the extra decorator touch to her home that will set it apart from the others on the block, there is no more effective or economical way to do it than with the use of custom shutters.

Today, inexpensive shutters are available in a wide variety of sizes to fit any application. The basic styles include horizontal and vertical louvers, solid and fabric panels.

The most versatile shutter treatment for a large window is achieved by the use of two separate rows of the independently hung, louvered units.

Generally, the two rows of panels are divided at the center window mullion which permits closing the bottom row for privacy and opening the top row for light and ventilation.

In the kitchen or family room half-window shutters will give a dramatic effect. With a single row of shutters on the top of the window, privacy may be maintained with half-window cafe curtains. One of the most popular half-window treatment uses a row of shutters on the bottom with over-lapping curtains on top.

Modern room decor will probably call for full window single hung shutters. These units are available in any height up to 96 inches. And for extra tall windows, a door-high shutter can be topped off with matching panels to fill the opening.

In formal rooms fabric panel doors may be used to carry out the theme of draperies and furniture.

Interesting Room Can Result From Interesting Walls

An interesting wall treatment can do a great deal to make an interesting room, is the opinion of California decorator Barbara Lockhart.

Miss Lockhart, who has done some of Hollywood's most intriguing homes, feels that all too often wall decorations fail to give that "just right" touch to create not only a conversation-making background, but also to coordinate the room's decor.

Charming wall decorations need not be expensive. A bit of imagination in the selection and in the hanging is all that is needed to convert many products now on the market into an accent of elegance.

Mosaic wall plaques, for instance, are available in a variety of subjects to fit any decor. The kits of these mosaics are unusually complete — right down to the crushed crystals, marble and jewels, which make them not only entrancing to hang, but fun to easily create.

The sparkling, jeweled decor dimension mosaics, for example, are as exquisite as museum pieces. Available is a series of 8 1/2"x24" panel kits which can be hung separately, or coordinated. Gorgeous plumed peacock teamed with a splendid jeweled pheasant will give any setting a new and brilliant look.

Cork panels, too, available in any lumber yard, can be the background of a handsome wall decoration at a moderate cost.

Easily set into a baroque frame, the cork makes a character textured background on which to hang or insert a beautifully painted plate, or Dresden china doll that will give a quaint lift to most any mid-Victorian room.

In a stark white modern frame the cork panel will brilliantly set off brass or copper decorations to make a conversation piece for contemporary decoration, while in a maple frame it is Early American.

"Looking at the wall and thinking about it," advises Miss Lockhart, "is the first step in redecorating a room to be a pleasant spot for living and entertaining, or simply relaxing."

Menzies Doubts Bomb Claim Of Indonesians

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies expressed doubt today that Indonesia could explode an atomic bomb next year.

Brig. Gen. Hartono, director of the Indonesian army logistic service, said Saturday that Indonesia plans to launch home-made guided missiles and explode an A-bomb some time next year.

Autopsy Set For Man Who Died In Jail Cell

WEST UNION, Ohio (AP) — Authorities were awaiting word today on the results of an autopsy on Ray Watson, 52, Manchester, who was found dead Sunday in Adams County Jail. Sheriff Eugene Fulton said Watson had been booked at the jail Saturday night on a drunkenness charge. Watson reportedly had been undergoing treatment for stomach ulcers.

OUT OF THE PAST. Farmers in the Soviet Uzbek Republic near the Red Chinese border have been taking cotton to market in this manner for hundreds of years. The cotton grown in the area is processed at the mills of Tashkent.

Clay Arrives By Barge For Ware Plants

A barge loaded with 900 tons of ball clay for area potteries arrived in East Liverpool today after a trip up the Ohio River from Tennessee, marking the beginning of a large-scale clay shipping endeavor by Bell Industries.

Bell Industries operates Bell Research Co. in Chester, producing heating devices for pyrometric cones, and the concern is engaged in mining ball clay in Gleason, Tenn., feldspar in Maine and china clay in South Carolina.

John McLaren, sales manager of Bell Research, said his concern eventually will move 30,000 tons of ball clay each year by barge to supply a number of East Liverpool area potteries. Bell switched from railroad shipments of clay to river barge to benefit from savings of $3 to $4 a ton over shipments by rail, he said.

The shipment of 900 tons of ball clay that arrived at the Parsons Coal Co., Inc., here today is equivalent to roughly 20 railroad cars of the product, he added. The concern will utilize "jumbo" size barges of 1,300 tons capacity sometime later. Arrangements for shipping the ball clay by barge were made by Samuel Mountford, Bell salesman in this territory.

Bell has furnished ball clay to area potteries for a number of years, but has turned to river barge shipments for the first time. The clay is hauled from the Parsons Co. to area potteries by truck.

The Indian Ocean lies entirely within tropical or southern zones and is enclosed by a land mass at its northern limit.

Cloud Slated For 5th Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's regular, every-two-years session of the Legislature starts seven weeks from today, and its leadership is being decided as this second week of the special session gets under way.

Farmer - contractor Roger Cloud, a eight-term veteran of the Ohio House, is expected to be named to a fifth term as speaker when Republican members-elect caucus today. Cloud lives in De Graff, Logan County.

It will be a different story when House Democrats - elect huddle Tuesday. Michael A. Sweeney, a young Cleveland who begins his fifth term in the House in January, has announced that he will oppose A. G. Lancione of Bellaire for the minority leader's job. Lancione just was elected to his 10th term. Both he and Sweeney are regarded as liberal Democrats.

Thirty-two votes will be needed to win the minority leader's job, because Democrats will have 62 members in the House next year (compared with 42 now). Republicans still will have a 75-62 edge, however.

In the Senate—now controlled 20-13 by Republicans but split 16-16 in the 1965 Legislature (a population ratio accounts for the different totals) — no caucuses have been set.

A power struggle could be shaping up for the Senate majority leader's post, however, because C. Stanley Mechem, now in his 11th term, was defeated Nov. 3. Mentioned as possible successors to the Athens County (Nelsonville) veteran are Sens. William H. Deddens of Cincinnati, a 14-term veteran of House and Senate, and Theodore M. Gray, a seven-term member of Piqua.

Thieves Strip Brake Shoes, Tire Off Car

Paul Conkle, 2109 Michigan Ave., told police Saturday night thieves stripped the rear brake shoes and a 7.10-x-15 snow tire off his 1956 model auto while it was parked on a lot adjoining his home between 11 p. m. Saturday and 9:15 a. m. yesterday.

Conkle said a radio was stolen from the auto three or four days earlier. It was one of a series of weekend vandalism and theft cases reported to police over the weekend.

Linda Shaw, 213-17th E. 4th St., told police Saturday night the outside mirror was broken off her 1956 model auto between midnight Thursday and 9:30 p. m. Saturday while it was parked on Washington St. between E. 3rd and E. 4th Sts.

Mrs. Gerald Crawford of Rochester reported the radio antenna on her 1960 model convertible was bent by a vandal while it was parked on St. George St. between 5 and 8:30 p. m. Saturday.

Ruth Ann Crawford, 30, of 852 St. George St., reported the roof of her 1956 two-door sedan was damaged by a stone hurled off the Chester Bridge by two unidentified boys Saturday at 8:30 p. m.

The woman told Patrolman L. E. Richard she was driving east on the River Rd. about 30 miles an hour when the boys threw the stone.

Donald Davis of S. Surrey Rd., Fisher Park, told police Sunday night that a vandal fired a shot which broke a 20-x-40-inch window in his new home which is under construction Davis St.

Your 'Home Sweet Home' Often Proves Dangerous

Did you know that probably the most dangerous place in the world is right under your own roof?

According to statistics from insurance companies, far more persons were injured at home than were injured in automobile accidents or at work.

So, with this in mind as you contemplate any home improvement spree, take a tip from the statistics of insurance companies and try to eliminate some of the hazards.

In the period from 1957 through 1961, one company alone paid claims amounting to over $11,000,000 for accidents occurring in and around the house.

They ranged from "asphyxiation" to "stepped on, kicked by, or collisions with animals"—not to mention the category—"miscellaneous."

The kitchen is the scene of more accidents than any other room in the house. The living room is next and, of course, the stairs are worst of all.

If you have a child in the crawling stage, it's imperative to have gates at the top of all open stairways and porch gates. And all stairways, inside and out, should be put in perfect condition.

Make sure, too, that all stairways and hallways are well lighted and that light switches or cords controlling lights are located so that it isn't necessary to grope and stumble around looking for them.

Some of the most serious accidents are from falling objects in the home, so be sure all pictures and other items on the walls are securely attached.

More than half the total home accidents were from falls. If you are fixing something up high, be sure to use a sturdy ladder and not a make-shift.

The villains for falls are freshly - polished and waxed floors and scatter rugs which don't stay in place.

You can make small rugs stay in place by putting rubber mats under them or you can attach fruit jar rubbers to corners or all around bottom edge. Or buy rugs that have special backing to prevent sliding.

Another dangerous spot in the house is the bathroom. Here there is the possibility of slipping in the tub or on a wet floor or even taking hold of a lighting fixture with a wet hand.

A rubber pad in the tub as well as vigilance can help to prevent falls. The light fixture can be fixed with glass or porcelain insulators found in any hardware store.

If you notice a worn or frayed electric cord on any appliance, pull out the plug and either substitute a new cord or bind frayed spot with electrician's tape.

Truman Claims MacArthur Eyed U.S. Presidency

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says "the only thing barring Douglas MacArthur from the White House was Douglas MacArthur himself."

He says Gen. MacArthur, who died last April at 84, was aiming for the presidency, but "he didn't fool anybody and least of all did he fool me."

Truman's comments came in the second of a series of taped television programs scheduled to be shown over 50 stations across the nation this week. The copyright text was released Sunday by Screen Gems, Inc.

Truman fired MacArthur as Far East commander during the Korean War in a dispute over policy.

He said that at that time MacArthur's view "had become accepted Republican policy."

"I was sure of that," he said. "I was sure that's what MacArthur was aiming for. He was trying to get himself in good with one of the big parties of the government of the United States, so that he could be president of the United States."

Truman added: "Douglas MacArthur, had he stuck to his military duties, might well have been an occupant of the White House. The only thing barring Douglas MacArthur from the White House was Douglas MacArthur himself."

Fire Chars 75 Acres

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Fire destroyed 75 acres of woodland in Kirtland, Ohio, Sunday before it was extinguished by rain as it raged within a half mile of the houses. Fire Chief Ralph Dyke said the fire would have raged on for several hours more had it not rained.

Burglar Gets All Of Nut Vendor's $24,000 Savings

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Mohamed Ben Ali had hoped to retire this year after 40 years of selling hot chestnuts, peanuts and popcorn from his pushcart. Saturday night burglars stole what he called his life savings of $24,000. The money included $10,000 in coins, stuffed into peanut bags and hidden in shopping bags.

"I saved and saved and saved — all for a burglar," said the 68-year-old vendor. "I'm just a man without a life. I feel like the blood has run out of me."

Ben Ali, who lives alone, has been a widower nearly 20 years. He left his native Morocco as a teen-ager.

After losing money in the 1929 stock market crash he began to store his cash in paper bags.

Columbus Firm Burns

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fire of undetermined origin Sunday night caused an estimated $75,000 damage to the A.A.A. Chair Rental and Sales Co. and the adjacent Columbus Chair Rental and Sales Co. in downtown Columbus. Two firemen received minor injuries while battling the blaze.

Oak Glen Students Launch Rehearsals Of School Play

Rehearsals are under way by students of Oak Glen High School for "Bull In A China Shop," school play to be presented Dec. 4-5 at 8 p. m. in the Little Theater on the campus at Hookstown.

Charles W. Morris is director of the three-act mystery comedy with a cast of 12.

The play is adapted from a short story by Ellery Queen, mystery author.

The action centers on a group of sweet old women who discover that a handsome, young bachelor lives across the street from their house. They later discover that he is none other than Detective Dennis O'Flynn of homicide, portrayed by James Haddock.

They set out to attract his attention, turning to crime to lure his investigations. The detective discovers he himself is the motive for their zany doings and in desperation manages to solve the case.

The cast includes Paula Mercer, Karen Conklin, Pat Kennedy, Lois Rice, Mary Connell, Jennifer Thornberry, Phyllis Murray, Mike Cashdollar, William McKnight, Tom Robinson and Ray Cawthon. Kathy Sodel is understudy, and student directors are Martha Hobbs and Janet Reed.

Miss Sara Thomas, Miss Regina Wehner and Thomas Salvetti are faculty advisers.

Serving on the stage crew are George Gillespie, James Beckman, Charles Huff, James Chaney, Kelsey Hayward, Mike Neilson, Robert Ballard and Fred Bowers, Jackie Jackson and Pam Macek are publicity chairmen.

Susan French will be in charge of wardrobe, and Barbara Wilson, Sandy Logston, Pam Waide and Florence Bainbridge will handle makeup duties.

Ushers will be Rita Murray, Kathy Nesselrode, Connie Dunlevy, Ella Mae Baker, Susan Miller, Nancy Cheuvront, Beverly Still, Millie Crowe and Geraldine Morris.

3 County Courts Pay Treasurer $4,298

LISBON — A total of $4,298.67 was paid to the county treasurer by the three County Courts during October, according to Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts.

A breakdown shows $2,439.25 from State Highway Patrol fines and $1,859.42 from civil and criminal court cases and costs.

The state treasurer received $1,869.75 for its 45 per cent of the patrol fines and $50 from other fines.

The courts at Salem, East Palestine and Lisbon handled 355 criminal cases and 67 civil during the month.

Sheriff, constable and city police fees amounted to $194.58.

150th Anniversary Services Set In Georgetown Church

St. Luke's Guild of St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Georgetown has launched plans for the 150th anniversary of the church, with services to be held Dec. 6.

Suffragen Bishop William S. Thomas of the Pittsburgh Diocese will confirm a class of young people in the afternoon. A reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mackall following services at the church, which has been in use for 131 years.

Plans are also complete for their guild's annual Christmas party and gift exchange to be held Dec. 8, at 8 p. m., with Mrs. John Mackall, Mrs. Richard Trimble will be co-hostess. The Church School will hold its Christmas party Dec. 23 with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allison. Mrs. Samuel Laughlin is president of the Guild. The Rev. Philip Schaeffer is rector of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mackall have moved into their new home adjacent to the Georgetown Post Office, where Mrs. Mackall is the postmaster. They entertained Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson of Aliquippa at a farewell dinner. Mrs. Johnson, who carried mail between Aliquippa and Georgetown for the past five years, has discontinued that service.

Mrs. Holland Morris has concluded a visit with relatives in Glen Easton, W. Va. Mrs. Morris' mother, Mrs. O. P. Blake, recently underwent surgery in Glen Dale Memorial Hospital.

Sonar Confirms Deep Chasm In Sea's Floor

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — The first direct evidence confirming existence of the "Hatteras submarine canyon" was reported by Duke University scientists Sunday.

Dr. Robert Menzies, director of the university's oceanography program, said sonar soundings from the university research ship Eastward indicated the chasm in the Atlantic Ocean floor off Cape Hatteras is several hundred feet deep and may be several hundred miles long.

The canyon has been an object of speculation for more than 20 years.

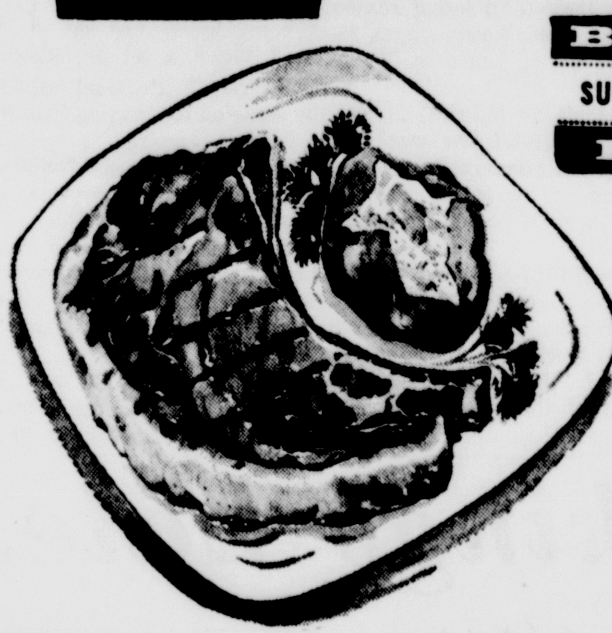

Skiing Breaks Fewer Bones Of 'Older' Fans

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP) — Old bones may be brittle but they don't break as often as young bones on skis.

That's what Dr. L. Bruce Anderson of Billings reported to Wyoming and Montana doctors after making a five-year study at the Grizzly Peak ski run near Red Lodge, Mont.

The number of broken legs, per capita, decreases with age but "maybe older people are just more cautious skiers," Anderson said.

Thornton Sets Scoring Mark In 44-12 Win Over Beaver

CHRIS THORNTON

By CHUCK CRONIN
Review Sports Writer
Fullback Chris Thornton powered his way to a pair of single season offensive records as Wellsville High smashed Beaver Local, an arch-rival, 44-12, to wind up the district football campaign Saturday night.
The Wellsville star tallied three touchdowns and two conversions for 100 points, surpassing the old single season scoring mark of 90 by end John Carter that had stood since the 1940's.
He also pushed over the 1,000 yards gained mark for the season, first Wellsville player to accomplish such a feat, getting 156 yards in 28 carries in the finale.
THE BATTLE drew only about 1,200 fans to Nicholson

Stadium, far less than past struggles, although both teams finished with losing records, apparently influencing the interest.
Coach Ken Woods' Tigers ended 4-6-0, an also-ran in the Buckeye Border Conference, and it was their third losing season in succession. Woods stands 29-37-3 in seven years at Wellsville.
Hard hit by injuries, in particular the final few weeks of the season, Beaver Local also finished on the losing side under Coach Ed Stevens, 2-8-0.
WELLSVILLE gained a 14-6 halftime advantage, then walked away in the fourth quarter with a four touchdown explosion for one of the most lop-sided scores of the six-year-old series.

Tallies 3 TD's For Tigers

Players on both teams apparently repudiated the code of good sportsmanship at times, and the battle was one of the most bitter a lot of followers could recall. Personal conduct by some on the playing field left a lot to be desired.
Besides Thornton, Wellsville also got a terrific performance from halfback Tom Miller, 140-pound senior, who turned in his best running game, recovered a fumble, and ran back a pass interception for a touchdown.
MILLER squirmed loose for 83 yards in 18 carries, primarily through holes opened up by the right side of Wellsville's line — guard Pete Pease, tackle Bill Pease and end Pat Welch. These three were also praised by Coach Woods for sharp downfield blocking that accounted for a couple of scores.

Quarterback Dick Hall, 132-pound sophomore, shed his "rookie" status for Wellsville and went most of the way for regular Harry Thornton, ejected from the action with 7:05 left in the second quarter. Hall tossed one scoring pass, and in general did a bang-up job of running the team.
THE SAME could be said of Minutes later, the complexion of the battle changed for Wellsville. Pat Welch recovered a Beaver Local fumble and Wellsville took over at the Beaver 33.

AFTER two carries each by Miller and Thornton moved Wellsville to the Beaver one, Thornton plunged across and Welch caught a pass for the conversion and a 22-6 lead.
Less than two minutes later, Wellsville's Miller intercepted a pass at the Wellsville 45 and scooted the distance, tackle Bill Pease removing the last Beaver defender that had a chance to get him at the 10.
That put Wellsville ahead 28-6, but there was more to come. On a tricky reverse with Chris Thornton handing off, Thomas followed the sidelines 37 yards for Wellsville's third score of the last quarter. Chris plunged over for the conversion to make it 36-6.
On the ensuing kick-off, a short one by Wellsville, the Beavers fumbled and Miller of the

Browns Whip Lions, 37-21 To Take 2 1/2 Game Edge

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Alex Hawkins is the Baltimore Colts' third captain, sixth running back and seventh pass receiver.
He also is a major reason why the Colts are within one victory of gaining the title in the National Football League's Western Conference.
Hawkins, filling in for injured end Raymond Berry, made a diving catch of a 26-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Unitas that boosted the Colts to a 17-14 victory over Minnesota Sunday.
The Colts' ninth straight triumph gave them a virtually insurmountable 3 1/2-game lead over Detroit and Los Angeles, who both lost. They now have four games in which to win one, that will make them conference champions for the first time since 1959.
Hawkins, in his fifth season, is one of the most valuable utility men in the league. He plays where he is needed — behind five other runners and six other pass receivers — but his primary job is heading the special teams — the kicking and receiving units.

In that position, he joins quarterback Unitas and defensive end Gino Marchetti as Baltimore's captains.
But in his position of end Sunday, he caught only his second pass of the season and scored his first touchdown since 1962.
The 6-foot-1, 186-pound veteran entered the game on offense a short while before he was called on for the winning catch. It came with six minutes left and Baltimore trailing 14-10.
The touchdown was the 15th of Hawkins' career, putting him slightly behind Jimmy Brown, who has 103. Brown scored two touchdowns in Cleveland's 37-21 victory over Detroit.
In other games, Chicago stopped Los Angeles 34-24, New York tied St. Louis 10-10, San Francisco upset Green Bay 24-14, Philadelphia edged Dallas 17-14 and Washington walloped Pittsburgh 30-0.

The Colts broke a scoreless tie with Lou Michaels' 35-yard field goal and Unitas' 74-yard touchdown pass to Lenny Moore in the third quarter. Moore's score marked the 13th consecutive game in which he has gone across with a touchdown.
Minnesota, however, came back with two touchdowns, Fran Tarkenton's 16-yard aerial to Hal Bedsole and Tommy Mason's 21-yard run.
Brown's scoring smashes of six and two yards placed him only two behind Don Hutson's all-time record for total touchdowns. Lou Groza added field goals of 38, 47 and 36 yards to the Browns' victory that shot them 2 1/2 games in front in the Eastern Conference.

HARD RUNNING fullback Jim Brown is upended by Detroit defenders Ernie Clark (59) and Dennis Gaubatz in Sunday's game at Cleveland. Brown scored two touchdowns raising his total to 103 and pushed his season's rushing total past 1,000 yards. The Browns won, 37-21. (UPI Telephoto)

Massillon Waits Final Grid Vote

MASSILLON — The Massillon Tigers will now wait for the final vote to be tallied probably naming them state football champions for 1964 after they scored one of football's greatest comebacks to defeat rival Canton McKinley, 20-14, Saturday before a sellout crowd of 22,685.
Second string quarterback Dave Sheegog, a junior, came off the bench late in the third quarter to lead Massillon to three touchdowns in the fourth period.
The Tigers, ranked No. 1 in the voting, trailed No. 2 Canton McKinley, 14-0 entering the final 12 minutes.
McKinley had scored two first period touchdowns when Larry Haines passed nine yards to Emanuel Bradley and Henry Vafides added the extra point on a placement.

Later in the period, McKinley took advantage of a Massillon fumble and drove to the one where Pete Kalogeras went in for the score. Vafides added the conversion.
Massillon, stopped twice on the one by the Canton forward wall, finally got rolling when Sheegog entered the game and directed the Tigers to three tallies.
Jim Lawrence scored Massillon's first touchdown from the one, Bob Hewitt went over for the second TD from the one and Sheegog added the conversion to tie the game at 14-14.
With 54 seconds left, Sheegog twisted his way for 14 yards for the winning touchdown.

Winters Throws For 3 TD's To Pace Potter Reserves

Junior quarterback Chuck Winters passed for three touchdowns and scored another in leading the East Liverpool reserves to a 40-0 victory over Lisbon Saturday at Patterson Field.
The victory in the final game lifted the jayvees to a 6-3-1 record.
Winters flipped two touchdown passes to Mike Goodball covering 30 and 25 yards then teamed up with Mike Silliman on a 60-yard scoring play.

Winters ran over from 12 yards out for another touchdown.
Emery Brewer hit paydirt scoring on a two yard run and the Potters also recorded a safety when the forward wall blocked a Lisbon punt in the end zone.

Nebraska, Arkansas Gain Berths In Cotton Bowl

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The feeling grows that the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, the country's No. 1 college football team, may make themselves available for a bowl bid provided they beat Iowa this week and Southern California a week from Saturday to wind up a perfect 10-0-0 season.
The bowl situation jelled somewhat over the weekend with the announcement that Arkansas and Nebraska, each unbeaten and untied in nine games, will play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas New Year's Day. Texas, 8-1, accepted an invitation for the Orange Bowl at Miami New Year's night. Unofficially Alabama, 9-0-0 and second-ranked nationally to Notre Dame, was indicated as the opponent for the Longhorns.

That leaves the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., as the other major bowls Jan. 1.
A Sugar Bowl source told The Associated Press Sunday that Louisiana State, 6-1-1, and Syracuse, 7-2, will play there although no official announcement is expected until after this week's games.
The Rose Bowl is committed to teams from the Big Ten and Pacific Athletic Conference.
The powers-that-be at Notre Dame haven't said yes or no or maybe regarding a bowl bid, but there's no doubt the players would be for it.
"I guess it would be great," said star pass receiver Jack Snow after the Irish walloped Michigan State 34-7 Saturday for their eighth in a row. "Going from a 5-5 season to a 2-7 season and now a bowl. I'd like it, but it's not up to me to say anything."

Coach Ara Parseghian declares only "it's an administrative problem" and Athletic Director Moose Krause denies saying "chances of accepting (a bowl bid) were one in a million, no a billion."

Big Ten Title, Rose Bowl Wait Michigan-OSU Winner

By FRITZ HOWELL
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Chalmers (Bump) Elliott of Michigan and Woody Hayes of Ohio State will do a lot of plotting and planning this week. They clash here Saturday, before more than 84,000 fans, with the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl bid awaiting the winner. Both mentors will spend this week's workouts seeking some tactical trickery to add to their offensive repertoires.

Michigan-Ohio State games, even if last place is at stake instead of all the honors, have been classics down through the years since 1918. The Wolves hold a 35-21-4 edge over the Buckeyes, but Ohio has won the last four, and 9 of 13 under Hayes. Michigan hasn't won here since 1956.

Each team is 7-1 for the season, Michigan is 5-1 in the conference, losing only to Purdue by 21-20, while Ohio State is 5-0. The Bucks can take it all with a tie, but Michigan must triumph to sniff the Pasadena Roses.

Elliott would like nothing better than to succeed his brother

Pete, Illinois coach, as Big Ten champ and Rose Bowl representative. No brothers have ever put such a feat back to back.

The ancient rivals have met three common foes. Michigan defeated Northwestern 35-0, and Ohio did it 10-0. Michigan defeated defending champion Illinois 21-6, and Ohio won 26-0. Against Iowa Saturday the Wolves won 34-20, while Ohio eked out a 21-19 win over the Hawkeyes. Michigan outscored the three mutual opponents 90-26, Ohio did it by 57-19.

Michigan, fourth in offense nationally, has outscored eight foes by 191-76. Ohio has a 146-67 edge.

Back in 1950, in the famed "Blizzard Bowl", the same "Take it all" situation prevailed. With the temperature 10 above zero, and the field covered by deep snow which fell throughout the contest, Michigan won by 9 to 3 without making a first down. Two blocked punts gave the Wolves their scores, "impossible" field goal for Ohio's only points, punted 21 times for 685 yards that day—both Buckeye records.

That game sent Michigan to its last Rose Bowl appearance, but Ohio State has been there twice since then, winning each time.

Ohio State, by introducing the "I" formation for the first time, and running for a first down on a punting situation, broke out of its traditional conservative play Saturday in beating Northwestern. A week before the Bucks had been battered 27-0 by four-time loser Penn State, ending a six-game winning streak.

But the experts figure Ohio State will have to rebound still further to have a chance against the hungry invaders. Even at this late date, Hayes is planning one big lineup change, with Leon Lindsey, Steubenville senior, taking over at right half for Tom Barrington who has been a fixture there all year.

Barrington, injured early the last two games, has gained 199 yards in 59 tries, and caught six passes for 55. Lindsey has gained 107 in 13 attempts and picked off two passes for 28. Each has one touchdown.

Soph Quarterback Steals Show In Xavier's Victory

By HAL PARIS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Football heroes were a dime a dozen Saturday as most of Ohio colleges wound up their 1964 grid season with some dazzling feats.

One of the top performances of the weekend was turned in by Carroll Williams, a sophomore quarterback from Xavier who was making only his second start.

Williams fired touchdown strikes of 21, 41 and 42 yards as the Muskies surprised Detroit in a wild 38-27 contest.

Ashland's Morris Gullion rambled for 201 yards and two touchdowns in the Oiler's 13-7 conquest of Eastern Michigan. Gullion, who carried the ball 35 times, finished with 70 points for the season.

Other eye-catchers were Dan Simrell who led Toledo to a 27-8 victory over Southern Illinois. Simrell connected on 11 of 18 aeriels for 95 yards and one touchdown.

Marshall's star halfback Jack Mahone scored twice in the final period as the Big Green nipped Kent State, 12-7. Brig Owens ran and passed Cincinnati to the Missouri Valley Conference title as the Bearcats topped Wichita, 19-7; Ernie Kellermann scored two touchdowns and passed for another as Miami outlasted stubborn Dayton, 27-21; and full-back Gordon McMaken hit pay-dirt twice in the last quarter to give Capital a come-from-behind 19-10 decision over Otterbein. McMaken also rolled up 116 yards in 22 tries.

In others, Mike Kobilarsek picked up 118 yards in 14 attempts to pace Ohio Northern's 32-21 victory over John Carroll; defensive halfback Jerry Milizia picked off a fumble in the air and raced 45 yards for the winning score in Akron's 20-14 triumph over Heidelberg; Western Reserve handed Case Tech a 55-0 setback, the worst beating administered in the 73-year-old rivalry between the two schools, and Findlay closed out a successful campaign with a 9-1 mark clipping Baldwin-Wallace, 19-7.

In the major surprise of the day, Ohio University vanquished Mid-American titlist Bowling Green 21-0 as fullback Wash Lyons ripped for 84 yards and two touchdowns.

Sadair Routs Field To Win Stake Race

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Flamingo at Hialeah Park, first of 1965's major stakes for 3-year-olds, is some three months away but already horse-racing fans are talking of a clash between Bold Lad and Sadair.

Bold lad, a hard-hitting son of Bold Ruler from Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Wheatley Stable, finished his 2-year-old campaign last month with a record of eight victories, six of them in stakes, and two seconds for earnings of $387,741.

Sadair, a mighty fast son of the Argentine sire, Petare, from Mrs. Mary B. Hecht's North Forty Stable, still has the $75,000-added Pimlico Futurity on Nov. 28 before winding up his 1964 season. But the ease with which he won last Saturday's $301,700 Garden State Stakes at Garden State Park started fans talking of what will happen after the pair become 3-year-olds on Jan. 1.

It was 10 lengths back to Royal Gunner in the Garden State Stakes as jockey Manuel Ycaza sent Sadair over the 1 1/16 miles in track-record time of 1:41. He earned $181,020 and boosted his bank account to $387,306.

Most of Sadair's winnings came from the country's two richest races—the Arlington-Washington Futurity and the Garden State stakes. However, he has posted four stakes successes in compiling a record of seven firsts, one second and three thirds in 11 starts.

Bold Lad, a home bred, and Sadair, a Florida-bred youngster who cost Mrs. Hecht $10,000 as a yearling, have met twice. And both times Sadair was third as Bold Lad showed the way home in swiftly run six-furlong events.

Canton Posts 8th Straight, Keeps Pace With Charleston

CLEVELAND (AP) — The chase is over for the United Football League's Eastern Division title with Indianapolis an easy winner, but the Western Division battle between Canton and Charleston could go right down to the wire.

Indianapolis clinched the crown Sunday night with a 35-0 victory over Joliet. It gave the Warriors a 9-3 mark and a four-game lead over Quebec and Wheeling, both with 5-7 records, and only two games left.

Quebec knocked the Ironmen out of the race, taking a 42-30 victory Sunday night.

The Canton Bulldogs streaked to their eighth straight win Saturday night, bumping Toledo, 36-22, while Charleston was giving Grand Rapids an unmerciful 82-7 beating.

The Rockets and Bulldogs share the Western Division lead with 10-2 records and are five games ahead of Toledo, the nearest competitor. Either Canton or Charleston will meet the Warriors in Indianapolis Dec. 5 in the championship game.

Quarterback Bob Brodhead passed for three touchdowns as Canton kept its streak alive. The Bulldogs had to overcome a 20-16 deficit in the third quarter. Quarterback Phil Yerrick had helped put Canton in the hole

Wilt Scores 62 Points To Dump Royals

By The Associated Press

Wilt Chamberlain is feeling better and the rest of the National Basketball Association knows it.

Chamberlain, who missed the San Francisco Warriors' first five games because of a stomach ailment, scored 62 points Sunday night as the Warriors topped Cincinnati 122-106.

The 7-foot-1 giant hit 26 field goals and his teammates threw a defensive blanket around Jack Twyman and Oscar Robertson to win it.

In Sunday's only other NBA game, Los Angeles whipped Detroit 111-105.

Al Attles guarded Twyman and Nate Thurmond handled Robertson as Warrior Coach Alex Hannum decided to swap assignments. Attles thwarted Twyman's fast break and limited the Royal veteran to two points. Robertson scored 22.

Bills Winning Streak Is Ended

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Key injuries and costly fumbles opened the gates. Babe Parilli's right arm finished the job. But the Buffalo Bills' magic may have started to slip away when they called for the fireman before the fire had started.

The Boston Patriots capitalized on Buffalo mistakes Sunday and, with Parilli firing five touchdown passes, rallied for a 36-28 American Football League victory that ended the Bills' winning string at nine games.

Injuries to pass receivers Glenn Bass and El Dubenion and defensive back Booker Edgerson contributed to the Buffalo fadeout. So did three fumbles that set up Boston touchdowns. The tip-off, however, came in the second half when the Bills made a mistake that won't show in the game statistics.

After a five-yard delay-of-game penalty moved the ball from the Buffalo 27 to the 22, Lamonica threw an incomplete pass, was tossed for a 10-yard loss on the next play and then lost the ball to Boston's Larry Eisenhower on the 5.

Parilli immediately flipped a five-yard scoring pass to Gino Cappelletti and the Patriots struck for two more touchdowns in the last quarter to pull it out.

To make potato balls, use medium-sized spuds; quarter and trim the corners.

Cleveland Takes Big Step To Title

By LOU MIO
CLEVELAND (AP) — The magic number now is 2 for the Cleveland Browns.

Two Cleveland wins would give the Browns their first Eastern Division championship since 1957. If St. Louis loses one of its remaining games, Cleveland would need only one more victory to clinch the title.

The Browns, manhandling

EL Gridded Reported 'Fairly Good' Today

Tim Grafton, the East Liverpool gridded injured in Friday's game with Alliance, is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital. Grafton suffered a neck injury and was taken to the hospital.

quarterback Milt Plum in the second half, took a big step toward the National Football League playoff game Sunday with a 37-21 win over the Detroit Lions before 83,064 at Municipal Stadium.

The win gives Cleveland an 8-1 record while the second place Cardinals slogged to a 10-10 tie in the rain with the New York Giants, leaving the Redskins 5-3-2. There are four games left on the schedule.

Jim Brown and Lou Groza were the men of the hour, Brown smashing for two touchdowns and Groza booting three field goals to avenge a 59-14 whacking the Browns took from the Lions in the 1957 championship game. Sunday's victory was the first over Detroit in six regular season games.

It was touch and go until the last two minutes.

Groza, playing with a broken nose, booted a 36-yarder with 1:24 left to put the Browns out of reach, 30-21. Walter Beach then sent the crowd home cheering when he intercepted a Sonny Gibbs pass and raced 65 yards to score as the game ended.

Plum had an outstanding first half. Behind solid protection, he completed 11 of 16 with touchdown passes of 92 yards to Danny Lewis, 39 to Terry Barr and a four-yarder to Jim Gibbons.

But the Browns front four got to Plum after the intermission, and he completed only 4 of 11. Gibbs came in for the last two plays.

The Lions led at halftime, 21-20, after a flurry of 17 points were scored in the last two minutes. Brown, who had scored a touchdown in the first quarter on a six-yard run, punched over from the two. Barr outran the Cleveland secondary with a pass with 31 seconds left and Groza booted a 47-yarder as the half ended. "The Toe's" first was for 38 yards in the second quarter.

The Browns moved ahead, 27-21, in the third quarter with Frank Ryan tossing eight yards to Paul Warfield after a 46-yard march before running out of the end zone. The score stayed the same until the last minute and a half.

Brown's two touchdowns gave him 103 in an eight-year career, two short of the NFL record of 105 held by Don Hutson, former Green Bay Packer end. Jim also rushed for 147 yards to give him 1,081 for the season. It's the sixth time he has gone over 1,000 during a season.

The Browns won the rushing contest, 218 to 106 but the Lions were on top in passing, 225 to 152. Ryan completed 15 of 25 while Plum had 15 of 27 and Gibbs 1 for 2.

The Browns face the Packers next Sunday in Milwaukee.

Hunters Take Field Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio hunters—thousands of them—head into the country today, opening the season for ring-necked pheasants, rabbits and quail.

The hunters will be shooting under stern reminders from the Department of Natural Resources to watch their cigarettes and matches in the tinder-dry drought areas of the state.

The daily hunting hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and the daily bag is four rabbits, two cock pheasants, six quail and two Hungarian partridges. Possession limit after the first day is twice those figures.

Rabbits and quail have been reported most numerous in southeastern hill country. Pheasants are most numerous in the northwest.

The rabbit season extends through Jan. 30, 1965. Pheasant season ends Dec. 19 except on public land where it lasts until Jan. 30. The quail season is the same as the pheasant season. Hen pheasants can be hunted only at specially-licensed preserves.

2 Gridders Treated For Game Injuries

A Beaver Local gridded was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital after being injured in the Wellsview-Beaver Local game Saturday night.

Harry Matheny received torn ligaments in his right knee.

Donald Blair of Lisbon, was injured Saturday morning in the Lisbon East Liverpool reserve game suffering a possible fractured skull. He was treated and released.

Promoters Count Up Losses Over Postponed Title Bout

BOSTON (AP) — Yon Cassius lies lean and sickly — behind the Muslim curtain — looking not the least like the heavyweight champion who was originally going to defend his crown against Sonny Liston tonight.

Cassius Clay, in case you've been out of touch, underwent surgery for an incarcerated hernia Friday night.

Bundini Brown, Clay's assistant trainer, phrases the disappointment over the fight postponement this way:

"Just two days to go and he was so pretty. He was gettin' evil, too, good and evil like he had to be for this. All this work — it's like milkin' a cow and having him kick it over."

The latest medical report issued on Clay reads, "improving and feeling kind of happy" despite the big letdown.

Boston City Hospital issues an occasional phrase but no one gets by Clay's heavy guard of Black Muslims, the organization which gave him the name Muhammad Ali by which he prefers to be known.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I'm in the wall-paper and paint business.

Your idea of buying an extra roll of wallpaper for lining shelves and drawers is excellent. Over the years, I've noticed that thrifty customers will buy an extra roll or two of wallpaper to use when they redecorate.

They use this extra paper in a couple of years to do over only one wall... the one that catches the most soil.

Also, there is a liquid which can be brushed or rolled on the wallpaper to make any surface washable. It's used mostly around stoves, light switches, lower part of a stair wall (which normally gets a lot of finger-marks) and above hot air registers.

Most paint stores have a preparation of this kind.

RAY PHILLIPS.

This is the first time I ever heard of papering only one wall. What a great idea! Thank you, sir.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: A safe, out-of-the-way place to hang women's stockings is to fasten them with plastic clothespins to the spaces between the hooks on the shower curtain.

There is no need for moving the stockings when the curtain is pushed back.

MRS. RAYMOND GREEN.

DEAR HELOISE: Since you test all hints, I'm sure your husband must have some good laughs!

Does he ever tease you about some of the experiments you try?

Are you kidding? Sometimes he's sure I've lost my mind!

For three months, I have had a piece of plastic wrap on the bathroom mirror, to see if it would solve the problem of steam on the mirror after taking a shower.

I used my lipstick to write "Testing for Fog" on the plastic wrap, so he wouldn't tear it off the mirror.

Later I glanced at the mirror and discovered he had taken my lipstick and in big letters, had added "And RAIN and SNOW".

Even though he laughs at me sometimes, he provides me with some good laughs, too.

P.S.: That happened to be a terrific hint. My husband liked it, too. Try it.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Our son has just recovered from an illness. He needed a steam vaporizer all night.

I found that my adjustable ironing board was just the thing for a bedside table.

I could lower the board so the steam from the vaporizer came up to him, also lessening the hazard of the vaporizer being knocked over by a tossed arm during sleep.

During the day I put the board up higher and kept books and other items for amusement on it.

Dr. Conant Asks National School Policy By States

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a harsh criticism of the "educational establishment," Dr. James B. Conant has called on the 50 states to join in a nationwide educational policy.

Conant, president emeritus of Harvard University, emphasized he was not referring to a national education policy to be established and directed by the federal government but rather a policy set up by the states.

Conant set forth his views in a new book, to be published today, "Shaping Educational Policy," (McGraw-Hill).

In it he urges that the six regional accrediting agencies be "discredited," and that the influence of such organizations as the National Education Association be minimized.

For meals, I again adjusted the board to table height, turned it lengthwise across the bed as a tray. I put plastic over it, then put a gay cloth on top of the plastic.

MARILYN CHASE.

DEAR HELOISE: It always bothers me to see little children out in their strollers with only a blanket around their feet.

When my children were little (a long time ago!) I used to put their feet into a large paper bag, then wrapped bag, feet, and all in a blanket.

The wind did not pierce the heavy bag and their little feet were protected.

MRS. G. WEFER.

Salineville Hearings Set For 2 Motorists

SALINEVILLE — Hearings will be held Thursday night by Mayor Stanley Fitch for two motorists cited by Police Chief Earl Laney for stop sign violations.

They are Robert L. Gibson of New Philadelphia, cited Thursday night, and Ronald A. Mott of Weirton, cited Friday night, both at the E. Main St. intersection of Route 39.

Chief Laney said eight local motorists have been cited for parking violations. He warned the parking regulations will be strictly enforced.

Mr. K's Fall Termed Presidium 'Surprise'

WASHINGTON (AP) — John A. McCone, head of the Central Intelligence Agency, says the fall of Soviet Premier Khrushchev surprised the Soviet Presidium as well as the rest of the world.

The reason, he said, is that Khrushchev's enemies did not themselves believe they had strength to remove him until they assembled in Moscow Oct. 14.

McCone discussed the Soviet situation in a talk before a Catholic University homecoming banquet — the first speech he has made since becoming CIA director three years ago.

Restoration Planned For Old Ford Theater

WASHINGTON (AP) — The old Ford's Theater building is to be closed on Nov. 30 so that work may start on restoring the interior to its appearance the night of April 14, 1865, when President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

Work will take about two years, said Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall. Congress has voted $2,730,600 for the restoration.

The building now houses the Lincoln Museum and has little to indicate that it was once a theater. During restoration the museum items will be placed in storage but later will be on display in the theater basement.

Workshop Set 90 See Film For County School Staff

The Columbiana County Education Association will hold a high school workshop Friday at Beaver Local High School. Registration for the program will be held from 9 and 9:30 a.m.

The forenoon program will consist of invocation by the Rev. Frank Hare of West Point, followed by a music by the Beaver Local High School Band. Roy Cashdollar, Beaver Local executive head will welcome the guests and County Supt. James L. McBride will speak.

A panel discussion will be held on the relative merits of extra-curricular activities in the school program. The panel discussion will be moderated by Urton Anderson, secondary school supervisor of Columbiana County schools.

The panel will include Joe Driscoll, executive head of Fairfield - Waterford Schools; Tom Leek, Southern Local High School principal; Mrs. Mary Leatherberry, mathemetics teacher, United Local High School; Mrs. Alice Satterthwait, English and French teacher, United Local; Albert Gerone, coach, Southern Local High, and John Pape, guidance director of Beaver Local High.

The afternoon sessions will consist of teacher discussions on the value of intermural and scholastic sports, music, dramatics, debate, service clubs, student government and school publications.

Lunch will be served for the group in the high school cafeteria.

90 See Film Shown PTA

Ninety attended a meeting of the Hillcrest - Fairview Parent-Teacher Association Thursday night when movies of school activities were screened.

The Rev. Charles Kampmyer of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church spoke on "What Is Religion."

Wayne Hamilton conducted a memorial service for the late Ross Nelson, a sixth grade teacher. Mrs. Nellie Echols, president, presided.

A letter of thanks was read from the Child Counseling Center for a contribution. The PTA voted to purchase a $5 Health Bond.

A play entitled "The Darling Brat" will be presented in the spring under the direction of Mrs. Zetta Penn.

The fifth grade won the attendance award. The Executive Board reported the PTA will purchase a National Geographic subscription for use in classrooms.

The Board of Education will be asked to contact the State Highway Department to have flicker lights installed on Route 45 near the school.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Feed Your Hunger, Not Your Appetite:

Danny Kaye, when someone asked how he kept so lean, replied: "I feed my hunger, not my appetite, and so I'm lean."

Highly active, the nimble Danny can eat a liberal amount of food. He burns calories galore. But even so, he does not waste calories on foods which do not furnish the nutrients needed to maintain health.

THE DIFFERENCE between hunger and appetite is not only one of quantity but of food selection. With poor food habits, many overweight have "hidden" hunger. When your daily meals are lacking in essential nutrients, your body sets up a craving. Now if you attempt to satisfy your craving by eating more of the foods you like, and those you like contribute very little protection but a plethora of calories, you keep on gaining but still have hidden hunger and crave food.

To the reader who writes "I'm so hungry all the time, how can I cut my appetite down to size?" here is the way to do it:

Aim to improve your food selection. Important foods must come first. I know I am Jeanie-one-note on the protective foods, but in order to be properly nourished you must choose the foods which furnish the essential nutrients.

Do you include a high value protein food at each of the three meals? The body's requirement for protein is 70 grams daily for men and about 60 grams for women. (During pregnancy 20 grams more of protein are needed daily; during lactation 40 more grams.) An easy way to figure protein grams is to count one egg, one glass of milk and one ounce of cheese, lean meat, chicken or fish at 7 grams. The balance of the menu is made up of vegetables, fruit, whole grain cereals and or bread and spread.

THE ABOVE foods feed your hunger. Even while reducing you can have enough of the protective foods to be nourished properly. But you cannot include the trimmings and the rich desserts.

If you have been overeating for years it takes awhile to cut appetite down to size. Many dieters find they are satisfied on smaller meals by the end of a single week. For others it will require two or three weeks.

One overweight, who had more than 100 excess pounds to lose, reported: "It took me three weeks to know that I could get up from the table feeling hungry and not continue to feel hungry all afternoon, or all evening. I found that 30 minutes after the meal I felt appeased, and in an hour I had forgotten all about food."

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for Eat To Build Leanness. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Building Sold On W. 6th St.

Sale of the former White Insurance Agency building on W. 6th St. to Atty. Ben H. Berman for an undisclosed price was announced today.

Berman purchased the two-story structure from the estate of Francis P. White through the First National Bank, which is trustee for the estate.

Berman expects to move his law offices from 412 Washington St. into the new quarters following remodeling.

He said he will occupy the half of the building formerly occupied by the insurance office. The move will be made about the first of the year.

The building formerly housed the insurance office, a physician's office and jewelry store on the first floor. There is an apartment on the second floor. Renamed the Mackey - Coleman Agency, the insurance firm recently purchased the former residence of the late Dr. E. G. Kuhlman on W. 5th St.

District Session Attracts 400 To Church In Lisbon

LISBON — Approximately 400 attended the Christian Church District 7 convention held Sunday at the Christian Church. The Rev. James E. Moxley is pastor.

The Rev. Ernest Newborn of Canton challenged the convention in his opening address and in open discussion, with a variety of opinions heard for almost two hours.

Dr. Warner Muir of Indianapolis was the evening speaker. Just at the beginning of the evening session, a heavy electric load tripped a transformer and plunged the church and its capacity crowd into total darkness. The 20-minute darkness was used in candlelight singing.

The Lisbon volunteer fire department sent floodlights and a portable generator to help conclude the meeting.

The Christian Church and the Methodist Church helped with serving supper to the record crowd.

Supreme Court Rules In Pennsylvania Case

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court handed to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court today the job of seeing that the state's legislature adopts a reapportionment law meeting the federal "one - man - one-vote" standard.

The highest tribunal, in a unanimous action, vacated a decision by a special three-judge U. S. District Court for the middle Pennsylvania district that had declared invalid legislative apportionment acts of Jan. 9, 1964.

The high court's order said the federal decision had to be vacated in favor of action ordered by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. The state court had ordered the General Assembly to write a new reapportionment law in time for use in the 1966 state election.

Mrs. Nina Rank

Mrs. Nina Jacobs Rank, 73, of New Brighton R. D. 1, widow of Frank Rank, died Saturday afternoon at the Beaver Valley General Hospital in New Brighton, following a lengthy illness.

She was a sister of Mrs. Raymond Humphreys and Clyde Jacobs, both of East Liverpool. Mrs. Rank was born July 6, 1891, in Brush Creek, Beaver County, to the late Henry Jacobs and Margaret Jane Blaser Jacobs. She was a life-long resident of the New Brighton area and a member of the Church of God in New Brighton. Her husband died in 1960.

In addition to her sister and brother, she leaves three daughters, four grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Services will be held at the church Tuesday at 2 p. m. by the Rev. Larry White. Burial will be in Grove Cemetery in New Brighton.

Friends may call any time at the John P. McKenny Funeral Home in New Brighton.

Carl Gardner

Carl C. Gardner, 58, of Shippingport, former mail clerk in the Midland Post Office, died Saturday at 8:55 p. m. at his home after a long illness.

Born in Emporium, Pa., Aug. 12, 1906, he worked at the Midland Post Office 37 years. He was a member of the Green Valley Methodist Church of Shippingport, the Shippingport volunteer fire department and Odd Fellows Lodge 1065 of Allequippa.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Irene Gardner, at home, and a son, Donald G. Gardner of Shippingport.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the William F. Maiden Mortuary, 2345 Mill St., Allequippa. Burial will be in Mill Creek Hill Cemetery in Hookstown.

Rites Set Wednesday

Joseph B. Green, Retired Dam 8 Lockmaster, Dies

Joseph B. Green of New Philadelphia, who retired seven years ago as lockmaster at former Dam 8, near Newell, died Sunday at 2:30 a. m. at the Union Hospital in Dover, following an illness of several months. He was 63.

Mr. Green was born in Pittsburgh, Jan. 18, 1901 to the late Joseph B. Green and Loretta Law Green. He was a life member of the Glasgow Masonic Lodge 485 of Midland and the Scottish Rite of New Castle.

Mr. Green had been on the river 35 years when he retired in February 1957 as lockmaster at former Dam 8.

Mr. Green began working around dams in 1922. He spent several years at Dams 4 and 7 before moving to Dam 8 in 1924 with his father. He began as a lockman at No. 8 before his promotion to dam-tender in 1931. His advancement to assistant lockmaster came in 1945 and in May 1946 he became lockmaster.

His father was a riverboat captain for Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co. Leaving the coal company, the elder Green helped complete construction of Dam 9 at New Cumberland, then joined its crew.

Moving to Dam 7 at Midland, the elder Green was lockmaster there for seven years. In 1924, he became lockmaster at No. 8, where he remained until 1927, when the Army Corps of Engineers moved him up to assistant superintendent at Local 10 in Steubenville.

Mr. Green often recalled the 1936 flood, the worst in modern

Green Valley Methodist Church will officiate.

Friends may call at the mortuary this afternoon from 2 to 4 and tonight from 7 to 10.

Hugh Saltsman

Hugh Clark Saltsman, 72, of Irontdale R.D., a retired farmer and claymine worker, died Saturday at 6 p. m. at the Twin City Hospital at Dennison.

Mr. Saltsman was attending a fox hunter's dog show at Leesville Nov. 6, when he was stricken with a heart attack and was taken to the hospital.

He was born at Mooretown, Ohio, to the late Alexander Saltsman and Mary Groves Saltsman. For the past 39 years, he lived in the Irontdale area, working in the claymines of the Colonial Works of the H. K. Porter Co. in New Salisbury. He later worked for the F. J. Dando Brick Co. in Hammondsville, retiring in 1956. He was a member of the Hammondsville Methodist Church and the Ross Township Grange.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Nina Cline Saltsman, at home, and two sisters, Mrs. George H. Johnston of Wellsville and Mrs. John Owens of Richmond, Ohio. A son, Lt. Hugh Dale Saltsman of the Navy Air Force lost his life off Pearl Harbor in 1947 when his plane crashed at sea. Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. William L. Mautz, assisted by the Rev. Glenn Brunstetter of the Grace Methodist Church of Uhrichsville. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery in Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 6 tonight.

Robert Hopper

Robert Lee Hopper, 14-day-old son of Ronald Lee Hopper and Lenora Ross Hopper, 1104 Rosedale Ave., Hillcrest, Wellsville, died early this morning at the Cleveland Clinic, where he had been a patient about a week.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a sister, Lorraine Hopper, at home; the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Ross of Hillcrest; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hopper Jr. of East Liverpool; the maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Anna Barborak of West Point, and the paternal great-grandfather, J. C. Miller of Lisbon.

A Mass will be sung Tuesday at 9 a. m. at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church of Wellsville by Fr. Gerald X. Curran. Burial will be in St. Elizabeth Cemetery in Wellsville. The MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville is in charge of arrangements. There will be no calling hours.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: It always pleased me that Clyde was so neat. Now I'm beginning to think he is carrying things too far.

Clyde won't let me place his freshly ironed handkerchiefs in the bureau drawer because I don't line them up in a perfect stack. Before he goes to bed he polishes his shoes and ties the laces, bow and all.

When Clyde brushes his teeth he counts 300 strokes. I once asked him a question while he was brushing his teeth and he lost count. He was terribly annoyed.

Clyde is forever adjusting window shades and pictures. Last night he insisted the pictures were out of line. I said they looked straight to me. He took a yardstick and measured the distance of the pictures from the ceiling. When they measured exactly the same he mumbled, "The house is crooked."

Clyde's obsession with neatness is making him awfully difficult to live with. Any advice? —PERPLEXED.

Dear Perplexed: If Clyde's obsession remains confined to handkerchiefs, shoe laces and pictures, fine. But his compulsions may spill over into other areas. If they do, I hope he will see a doctor.

One Man's World

Dear Ann: Now I know why you wear your hair like that—to cover up the holes in your head. Your words of praise to that high school kid who gave up his bus seat to a tired woman was lousy.

I'm an able-bodied, middle-aged male and I don't give my bus seat to anybody. Women demand equal pay and the privilege of voting and holding office.

They want to drink in bars, smoke cigarettes on the street, wear pants, ride motorcycles and be treated like men. I say let's treat 'em like men straight across the board?

If some of these dames would make their beauty shop appointments for noon instead of 2 p.m. or skip the last round of bridge they could catch an earlier bus and not try to shame tired, hard-working men out of their well-deserved seats. —OUT-SPOKEN.

Dear Spoken: One out of every three employed persons in this country is a woman, so it's safe to assume that not all females who ride the bus are coming from the beauty shop or the card table.

If you want to stay riveted to your seat while women stand, that's jake with me, but I hope someone gives your mother a seat.

Bible Misquoted

Dear Readers: I'm immensely flattered to have in my reading audience numerous authorities on the Bible. Presently, I'm fighting my way through a blizzard of letters informing me that the young man who kept turning out the lights (over the protests of his girl) invented his own Biblical quotation when he said, "Man's mettle is tested by toil in the darkness." Please read on:

Dear Ann: I have studied the Bible for over 45 years and the

Needle Pattern 800

Look glamorous for holidays. Spring, all year in this "mink" mohair stole.

Send 35 cents in coins for this pattern to Needlecraft, in care of the East Liverpool Review, 45 Pattern, P. O. Box 161, Old Chelsea Station, New York 11, N. Y. Print plainly your name, address, and the pattern number.

chap who tried to snow his girl with the "Bible quotation" put one over on her, and on you, too.

I have searched my Cruden's Concordance and my Thompson's Reference and find nothing under "toil," "mettle" or "darkness" that sounds even vaguely similar.

I get awfully tired of people who attribute quotations to the Bible in an attempt to elevate themselves.

If the girl had known her scriptures, the young man would not have been able to fool her. She should be embarrassed. —RRT.

Dear RRT: I'm sure she is now. And that makes two of us.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Franco Raps Danish Effigy Demonstration

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Gen. Francisco Franco, Spain's chief of state, has demanded that the Danish government explain why it took no action against demonstrators who burned him in effigy last month in front of the Spanish Embassy in Copenhagen.

Justice Minister K. Axel Nielsen told Parliament last week the government planned to take no action. The demonstrators were protesting a jail sentence given in Spain to Carlos Alvarez, a poet convicted of distributing material slanderous to Spain to foreign newspapers.

TV 'Amos' Finds Fame Fleeting

Among the cast of characters in next Thursday's "Perry Mason" show (Channel 2 at 8 p.m.) is one billed "A Janitor."

His name is Alvin Childress, and if he has a familiar look it's because he portrayed Amos Jones in the popular "Amos 'n' Andy" TV series.

The series still is syndicated widely on TV stations here and abroad by CBS, but it is more than 10 years since the 68 half-hour episodes were filmed, and acting jobs for Childress since then have been few and far between.

THREE YEARS ago he found his first steady employment in the Los Angeles County assessor's office, and last June he transferred into the county civil service commission's test division.

When acting jobs were particularly scarce following the windup of production on "Amos 'n' Andy," Childress tried everything—including parking cars for awhile at the posh Beverly Hills Luau Restaurant.

"I wanted to stay in California, if I could make a living, because I preferred it to New York," he says.

Childress was first of the three lead characters to be "Amos 'n' Andy" by James Fonda, a CBS producer at the time, who had gone through three years and 800 auditions in his search.

CBS HAD bought the rights from Charles Correll (Amos) and Freeman Gosden (Andy), but they retained casting control over the TV series.

"Mr. Correll and Mr. Gosden were not easy to please," Childress recalls. "I don't think they ever got over not being able to do the TV show themselves."

Childress helped producer Fonda find Tim Moore and Spencer Williams for the roles of Kingfish and Andy, respectively. Tim died a few years after the series was completed. Spencer has retired and lives in Hollywood.

Fonda is now producer of the "Hazel" TV series. Childress says he has not heard from him since the "Amos 'n' Andy" days. It was the "Hazel" series, ironically, which was singled out by one of the Negro groups not long ago as a test case to get more Negroes employed in TV. The beef was squared, more or less, when Fonda was given a Negro assistant.

ON THE SUBJECT of more integration for TV, Childress fears that the pressure mounted by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and others didn't gain for the Negro what they intended to gain.

"Now writers and directors in TV simply duck the problem by putting the blame on the NAACP," Childress says.

He was amazed that the "Perry Mason" people would call on him or any other Negro to play the role of a janitor. Parts for menials created the stereotype Negro which NAACP asked that movies and TV desist from perpetuating.

Childress is 57 today and would still like to be an actor.

TV Highlights

TONIGHT

7:30, KDKA, Intertel: "Stronger Since The War." The new status of women in modern Japan, accelerated by liberalized co-education, is the basis of this hour-long documentary.

7:30, WJAC, WHIC, 90 Bristol Court: "Father Comes Through," is the general theme. In "Karen," Karen and her father attend a father-daughter dance to avoid hurting each other's feelings, and in "Harris Against The World," Harris tries to settle a 15-year-old feud between his wife and her aunt Cora.

8:30, KDKA, WSTV, Andy Griffith: Opie finds a change purse containing $50 and learns that he may keep it if it goes unclaimed for seven days.

9, KDKA, WSTV, Lucy Show: Lucy, a widow, volunteers to take her son on a strictly-form-only camping trip.

10, KDKA, WSTV, Slattery's People: "Question: What Is A Genius Worth This Week?" Paul Burke guest stars in the role of a scientist-businessman and involves State Slattery in a fight over the threatened shutdown of a space research plant.

10, WJAC, WTRF, WHIC, Alfred Hitchcock: "Lonely Place," starring Teresa Wright, Pat Buttram and Bruce Dern. The wife of a peach farmer senses something dangerous about a hired hand whom her husband refuses to fire.

11:15, WTAE, Movie: "Ruby Gentry," starring Jennifer Jones and Charlton Heston. An adult drama unfolds as a girl from the wrong side of the tracks marries well, then sets out to destroy all those who previously snubbed her.

New 'Pacemaker' Helps Heart For Victim's Lifetime

CLEVELAND (AP)—A new implantable generator which requires no batteries and yet is expected to provide life-long electrical power to operate a pacemaker for the human heart has been tested successfully in an experimental animal.

This was announced by Carl C. Enger, electronics engineer, and Dr. John H. Kennedy of the Metropolitan General Hospital's department of surgery, who are developing the device at the hospital.

They said both electrical and mechanical energy were transferred as the generator, the pacemaker and the heart worked together in a continuing cycle.

The generator sparked the pacemaker by means of piezoelectricity given off by crystals of lead zirconate titanate when they were pressed slightly, it was explained. The pacemaker stimulated the failing heart into a strong beat and the heart beat, by means of slight pressure passed on to the crystals of the generator, kept the cycle going. Together the generator and the pacemaker were about the size of a man's thumb. They were encased in polyvinyl chloride and mounted on the ribs near the left ventricle of the heart.

Pacemakers now in use are operated by batteries which must be replaced through an operation about every three years. Piezoelectricity, an electrical property of certain natural crystals such as quartz, was discovered by Pierre and Jacques Curie in 1880.

Abdoud Leaves Sudan Post Under Pressure

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP)—Gen. Ibrahim Abdoud has turned the Sudanese presidency over to the new civilian Cabinet and quit as commander of the armed forces after renewed demonstrations last week against military influence in government.

Abdoud, 64, took a figurehead role after a student revolt last month paved the way for a civilian regime. Under pressure from the Cabinet, he agreed Saturday to retire. He had taken power as head of a military government in 1958.

Death Claims History Figures In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—Funeral services were incomplete today for Miss Marie Dickore, 81, noted Cincinnati historian and genealogist.

Miss Dickore died Sunday of the effects of a stroke she suffered three months ago. She was editor of the genealogical department of the quarterly bulletin of the Ohio Historical and Philosophical Society, and had traced the origins of hundreds of local families. She also wrote books and articles about genealogy.

Go to MONACO for glamour, excitement, and the satisfaction of money well spent

The best way to describe it is to tell you that all the luxury touches that the others brag about are standard equipment in the Monaco. The best engineering and styling that Detroit has to offer went into it. Chauffeurs won't like it... owners will insist on driving it themselves. Frankly, it's a special car designed for special people... people who want a luxury car but don't agree with the high luxury car prices. That's right. The Dodge Boys sell it so it's priced below the competition. All the new cars have a lot to offer... but only Dodge has the Dodge Boys (so you get more car for less money)

Thanksgiving Decreed

President's Proclamation Urges Thanks By All

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—Here is the text of President Johnson's proclamation of Nov. 26 as Thanksgiving day:

As the harvest season draws to a close and our storehouses bulge with the bounty of the land, it is our desire to observe, in the custom and tradition of our forebears, a special day dedicated to giving thanks to God—a day on which to lay aside our daily tasks and cares and pay joyful homage to Him. We are impelled to raise our voices in His praise and to proclaim our heartfelt gratitude for another year in which we have been blessed with a bountiful harvest, with intellectual, humanitarian, economic, scientific and technical advances and achievements, and with other gains too numerous to mention.

ALTHOUGH we have been blessed with unsurpassed prosperity, we recognize that poverty and want exist throughout the world—even among us—and we pledge ourselves to the eradication of those evils.

We know, too, that the foundation for a peaceful world is still to be built and that even now armed strife exists in parts of the world. We are saddened that gallant men of our armed services have fallen in the eternal quest for peace with freedom, dignity, and justice for all. We share with their bereaved families and friends a sense of tragic loss. In the words of Abraham Lincoln, we resolve "that these honored dead shall not have died in vain," and vow that their loss will spur us ever onward until man's great dream of universal peace is realized.

YET WE are filled with an instinctive impulse to give thanks for——Our free society of free men, free institutions, and free elections;

—Our freedom of speech, our freedom of the press, and our freedom to worship as our conscience dictates;

—Our emphasis upon the dignity, equality, and worth of man;

—Our humanitarian instincts;

—Our unalienable right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;

—Our confidence in our ability to meet the challenges of today and of the future.

For these are the things that set us apart as a nation—that made our nation great—that will keep our nation great.

SO AS our forefathers in Virginia, in New England, and throughout this land have done for more than three and one half centuries, let us appoint a special day on which all of us, in keeping with the dictates of our own conscience, will give thanks to the Lord for His manifold blessings. And on that day, let us rededicate ourselves to meeting the challenges of the present with the fortitude and faith with which our forefathers met the challenges of the past.

Now, therefore, I, Lyndon B. Johnson, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the Joint Resolution of the Congress approved December 26, 1941, 55 Stat. 862 (5

U.S.C. 87b), designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 26, 1964, as a day of national thanksgiving.

ON THAT day, let us gather in our homes and in other places of worship and in other suitable places to give thanks to God for His graciousness and His generosity to us—to pledge to Him our ever-lasting devotion—to beseech His divine guidance and the wisdom and strength to recognize and follow that guidance—and to pray to Him that the forces of evil, violence, indifference, intolerance, and inhumanity may soon vanish from the face of the earth and that peace, reason, understanding, and good will may reign supreme throughout the world.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this thirteenth day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-four, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-ninth.

ARE FUNERAL COSTS BASED ON ABILITY TO PAY?

The answer to that question is—no! When you consult us about funeral service, one of the first things you will find is that all our funeral prices are plainly marked.

The policy of pricing in plain figures is your definite assurance that the same service is available to every client at the same price.

You will find, too, that our prices are moderate for really comprehensive funeral counsel, offered in a complete establishment which fully meets the high requirements of our membership in National Selected Morticians.

Ford Eyes Next Move In Strikes

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. studied its next move today in a parts-shortage situation which it says could lead to a system-wide shutdown of its 90 plants by the end of the week.

Approximately 58,000 of Ford's 160,000 employees remained idle in strikes or layoffs at factories across the country as negotiations continued with the United Auto Workers Union.

Included were 16,700 workers affected by local-plant strikes which were reduced to five over the weekend.

Ford, blaming a car-parts shortage from key manufacturing plants, laid off 34,000 men last week. At that time a string of local-plant strikes was idling 24,100 workers.

Both company and union expressed hope that all the strikes could be settled before a scheduled meeting between management and the UAW's national bargaining committee Thursday.

Teachers Eye Pay Increase In Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Buses and motorcades brought hundreds of teachers seeking higher pay toward the Louisiana Capitol today as the legislature prepared to open a 20-day special session.

Gov. John McKeithen scheduled a morning meeting with Lloyd Rittiner, president of the Orleans Parish School Board, and the estimated 35 teachers who could crowd into his office.

McKeithen leaders have proposed legislation to enact a new pay scale for teachers, bus operators and other school personnel, and provide funds for half the scale.

Teacher leaders insist on the promised full pay raise drawn up by the United School Committee.

This scale would give starting teachers with a degree a boost of $1,000 a year to $4,400. Those with more experience and higher rank would get increases up to $1,900 a year.

Louisiana has about 36,000 public school teachers.

The administration program calls for a broadened sales tax and improved collection methods to raise about $28.8 million annually for teacher pay and several other items.

There was rumbling among some lawmakers against an administration proposal to bring real estate transactions, excluding homestead and mineral leases, under the sales tax for an estimated $18 million.

A scrap may be in the making on whether to stick to the USC pay-raise formula or make changes to benefit beginning teachers.

WCS In Elkton Plans Meeting

The WCS of the Elkton Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Myron McCammon, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30.

Mrs. Bert Dailey entertained the Half Century Club at her home near Elkton Tuesday night.

Mrs. Jerry Foreman, Mrs. Tom McCall and Mrs. Delmar Harrold were guests and prizes at 500 went to Mrs. Foreman.

Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. McCall and Mrs. Sam Ronsbak.

The club will hold its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Tom Richardson in Columbiana, after a spaghetti dinner and a gift exchange.

Mrs. Jay Eells helped serve at the refreshment table at the Christmas-at-Home Tea in Salem Thursday.

Mrs. George Eells entertained with a family birthday party for her husband Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones of Lisbon and Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Elkton were guests.

TV Actress Taken

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP)—Actress Kate Manx, 32, who appeared in recent years on television, died Sunday. Doctors attributed her death to an overdose of sleeping pills.

Venison Brought To Florida Home While Men Hunt

HALEAH, Fla. (AP)—The E.L. Westbrook family had venison today—delivered to their door.

The 125-pound buck with five-inch antler points apparently wandered miles from its Everglades habitat after it was wounded. Carolyn, 10, and Alan Hasker, 6, found the deer lying on their lawn Sunday. It was dead. Mrs. Charles Hasker said she didn't want it.

"I've never had deer," she said. "I wouldn't know what to do with it."

Police called the Westbrook garage to make the pickup. Mrs. Westbrook knew what to do. In quick order, the deer was skinned, dressed and iced.

"We're cooking a piece of hindquarters now," she said.

Mrs. Westbrook's husband and three sons weren't home to enjoy the meat.

They were in the Everglades—hunting deer.

Von Brentano Dies

DARMSTADT, Germany (AP)—Heinrich von Brentano, 60, former West German foreign minister, died Saturday. He served as foreign minister from 1945 to 1961 and remained active in politics until he became ill in 1963.
